Message from the Supervisor

Strengthening Paid Parental Leave

Supporting our families has always been one of my highest priorities. I am proud to say that San Francisco has a strong paid parental leave law after voters passed Measure I in 2002, but it is time to ask if we can do more to ensure that our City remains a leader in supporting families. Studies have documented the health benefits of strong paid parental leave programs for children and their parents, such as increased bonding and breastfeeding time, increased likelihood of going to regular doctor's checkups, and decreased risk of postpartum depression.

Currently, city employees receive 12-16 weeks of paid parental leave after the birth, adoption, or fostering of a child. However, employees are required to drain all of their paid leave, keep vacation or sick time, before they can access the benefit. In addition, employees who are married or in domestic partnerships with another city employee must split the benefit.

That is why I introduced a Charter Amendment on May 19 to strengthen our City's paid parental leave policy by allowing employees to maintain 40 hours of sick time when accessing the benefit. This will ensure that parents have some paid time available to them after they return to work to take care of potential emergencies with their child. In addition, the Charter Amendment clarifies that city employees are each entitled to the full benefit of 12-16 weeks of paid leave.

The Charter Amendment is the first phase in a longer effort to strengthen San Francisco's paid parental leave policies. I also announced the start of a Paid Parental Leave Task Force to explore additional changes to improve the city's paid parental leave policy. Initial participants of the Task Force include: Department of Human Resources, Controller's Office, Department on the Status of Women, Department of Children Youth and Their Families, First 5 San Francisco, the San Francisco Family Support Network, the Department of Labor's Women's Bureau, Google, Gap, Inc., President of the Police Commission Suzy Loftus, the Center for WorkLife Law at UC Hastings College of the Law, and the Healthy Mothers Workplace Coalition. The Task Force will explore ideas such as extending the City's paid leave program beyond 12 weeks and to non-municipal employees, among others.

The rest of the world has recognized the important health impact of strong paid parental leave laws on families. According to a 2014 report from the United Nation's Institute of Labor, 98 countries offer paid leave for 14 weeks or more. A 2013 Pew Research Center report analyzing 38 countries found that the median amount of full-paid time off for new mothers was five-to-six months. We look forward to working with our community in implementing a paid parental leave law that is on par with the rest of the world.

Recap on Neighborhood Events

Bike to Work Day

San Francisco's largest bike event of the year was an outstanding success. We joined the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition and several Sunset District residents at Elevation Bike Company (2648 Judah St. at 32nd Ave) before heading to City Hall. It was great to see so many bicyclists on the streets and the bicycle safety improvements that have been made. Our office will continue to advocate for improvements to our streets to make them as bike-friendly as possible and inspire more residents to consider biking as a valid feasible transportation option. For more information on Bike to Work Day, visit <http://www.sfbike.org/bike-to-work-day/>.

Making custom succulent planters at Establish

In May, we were inspired to create some beautiful succulent planters with Erica Maver of Establish. Erica provided us with various colorful mugs and planters, as well as a variety of succulents and cacti to choose from. We had a great time making custom planters in anticipation of Mother's Day! We also took a unique bike ride around the San Francisco Zoo. Travelling the Zoo by bike is a great way to cover a lot of ground as the Zoo is approximately 125 acres!

In June, we look forward to centering ourselves with some yoga led by Sarah Pascual at Aqua Surf Shop. Our second June activity will get our creative juices flowing by learning the process of creating a music video with Sunset Youth Services. We hope to see you at one or more of these upcoming DYD events!

Francis Scott Key Annex Yard Pavement to Parks Community Second Meeting

On May 14th, many Sunset District residents joined our office, along with the San Francisco Planning Department, the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) and architecture firm, Perkins + Will, to discuss temporary investments to the Francis Scott Key Annex yard (located at 1351 42nd Avenue and Judah Street).

As part of the Pavement to Parks program, the Planning Department hosts three community meetings for each site. This was our second meeting, which focused on creating an actual design for the yard surrounding the building. Participant groups included a variety of elements in their designs, including improved basketball courts, raised planting beds, bicycle paths, bicycle racks, trees, a performance stage, skate park, and more.

The third community meeting will be held in July. For more information about this project, visit http://pavementtoparks.sfplanning.org/fsk_school_site.html. To view a visual map of ideas generated at our first meeting, visit http://pavementtoparks.sfplanning.org/docs/FSK_Activity%20Map_2015.03.19.pdf.

If you would like to share your ideas for the space, please contact our office at (415) 554-7460, email ashley.summers@sfgov.org, or attend the final community meeting in July, which we will notify residents about via our July newsletter.

Thank you Captain Curtis Lum & Welcome Captain Denise Flaherty

Our office would like to thank Captain Curtis Lum for his years of service as Captain of the Taraval Police District. Since 2011, Captain Lum has been a great partner in improving the safety of our residents and has provided an open channel of communication for anyone who had public safety concerns. We wish him well in his new position at the San Francisco Airport.

Although we will miss Captain Lum, we look forward to working with new Captain Denise Flaherty on continuing to improve public safety in the Sunset District. Captain Flaherty joins the Taraval Police District from the Special Operations Bureau. Previous to that position, she was with the Homeland Security and Traffic Divisions.

Legislative Update - Massage Establishment Regulations

By: Jess Lam, District 4 Intern

In May, the Board of Supervisors passed legislation that Supervisor Tang sponsored amending the Planning and Health Codes to allow the City to properly regulate massage establishments. The Health Code legislation will give the Department of Public Health (DPH) the ability to deny massage business permits to applicants who have been convicted of criminal acts related to human trafficking, require all massage establishments to hold a (DPH) establishment permit, conform the number of instructional hours required for massage practitioner permits with the California Massage Therapy Council (CAMTC) requirements, and align massage practitioner attire and human trafficking poster requirements with State law, among other changes. The Planning Code legislation will require that all new massage establishments obtain a Conditional Use permit (and exempts sole practitioner establishments from this requirement), prevent massage establishments from reopening in a location where a previous massage establishment has been shut down for three years, and creates a time-limited legitimization program for those establishments currently in operation.

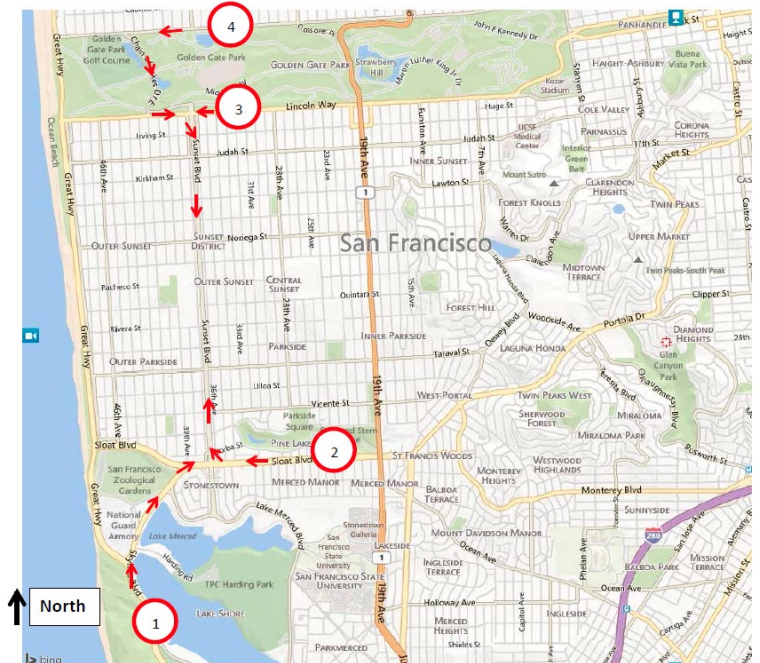

A state law (SB 731) that passed in 2009 sought to legitimize the practitioners in this profession, but had the unfortunate consequence of creating a dual regulatory system in San Francisco. After several cities in California experienced similar issues as San Francisco, another state law (AB 1147) was passed in 2014, which returned land use controls back to local jurisdictions. Given the passage of AB 1147, Supervisor Tang's legislation was designed to provide our Department of Public Health and Planning Department additional regulatory and enforcement tools for massage regulation. For more information on the regulatory process for massage establishments, please visit: <https://www.sfdph.org/dph/EH/Massage/default.asp>

If you would like to report unusual or suspicious activity occurring in massage establishments in our neighborhood, please contact: Dyanna.Quizon@sfgov.org or call 415-554-7460.

Great Highway Flashing Beacons Activated

Our office, along with the San Francisco Municipal Transit Agency (SFMTA), San Francisco Public Works, and San Francisco Public Utilities Commission (SFPUC), is pleased to announce the installation of four Great Highway flashing beacon lights. The flashing beacons, which were activated on May 8th, will notify drivers when the Great Highway is closed due to sand accumulation or inclement weather. They are strategically located on Lincoln Way at 33rd Avenue, Sloat Boulevard at Middlefield Drive, Skyline Boulevard at John Muir Drive, and Fulton Street at 33rd Avenue. A sign accompanying the flashing beacons state: "Great Highway closed when lights flashing," and encourages drivers to take alternate routes. It is our hope that by notifying drivers of a closure in advance, they will have time to take an alternate route. For more information, contact our office at (415) 554-7460.

Small Business Month District 4 Honoree: Noriega Produce

Every year during Small Business Month (May), our office has the opportunity to honor one small business in District 4 that has made an impact on our community. This year, we are honored to recognize Noriega Produce and Dimitri Vardakastanis as District 4's Small Business Month Honoree. Dimitri has been a great community partner. He joined other merchants to transform the Outer Noriega corridor with greening efforts and hold the well-loved annual Noriega Street Fair (now known as the Ocean Beach Music and Art Festival).

This year, Noriega Produce celebrates their 30th anniversary after opening in 1985. Dimitri started working at the shop when he was 16 years old. Dimitri always enjoyed being able to interact with customers and observing how the grocery business changed over time. Over the years, the shop evolved from a predominantly produce market to a small-scale, full-service market. Together with his family, Dimitri expanded the shop with new products and unique goods that stood out for its quality, becoming the shop we all know and love today.

The family has come a long way since immigrating to San Francisco in 1974. The family opened Haight-Ashbury Produce in 1981 at 1615 Haight Street and Noriega Produce in 1985 at 3821 Noriega Street. Later this year, they will open Gus's Market, named after Dimitri's father, Gus Vardakastanis, on the corner of 17th and Harrison Streets.

Many people in the Sunset know and love Dimitri and Noriega Produce because, as they say, they are an "extension of your kitchen, your pantry, your home." In fact, the family says that more than a few married couples met each other in the aisles of their stores. We are lucky to have such a friendly, quality market in our neighborhood, and we thank Dimitri for the impact he has made on the Sunset District.

Congratulations to Henry's House of Coffee, Winner of USF Gellert Family Business Award

Our office is excited to announce that our beloved local business, Henry's House of Coffee, is the winner of the 2015 University of San Francisco's Gellert Family Business Award. The annual award recognizes extraordinary business achievement and community service, and it is made possible by a generous gift from The Carl Gellert and Celia Berta Gellert Foundation. For 50 years, Henry Kalebjian and his family have been roasting coffee daily in their Noriega Street store. Many residents of the neighborhood enjoy drinking coffee and watching Henry and his family roast coffee beans at the shop. Our office congratulates Henry's House of Coffee for winning the award and sends our gratitude for their dedication to serving customers great coffee over the past half-century. If you would like to know more about Henry's House of Coffee, please visit <https://www.coffeesf.com/index.php>.

SFMTA Higher Capacity Bike Racks

The San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA) has launched a new pilot program to install three-bike capacity racks on select Muni routes. These new racks house one more bike than current racks, and will help people get to where they need to go by connecting biking and Muni. In District 4, riders on the following lines will see these new three-bike racks: 29-Sunset, 7-Haight/Noriega and the 18-46th Avenue.

The SFMTA is running this limited pilot and testing how the change affects bus operation and service. For more information, visit <https://www.sfmta.com/about-sfmta/blog/bigger-bike-racks-hilly-muni-routes>.

June's Disaster Tip: Earthquake Proof Your Home

We cannot predict exactly when a disaster or emergency will occur. However, we can take measures to prepare for an emergency that will help prevent damage and loss to our community. Our office will provide helpful information and resources on emergency preparedness so that District 4 residents may take precautionary steps from www.sf72.org.

After an earthquake, you may be facing several issues: your home may be damaged, you could be without utilities, or someone in your family could be injured. Fortunately, there are several actions you can take to earthquake proof your home and help prevent damage and injury.

- Choosing plastic putty or non-slip mats to stabilize ornaments, small objects and appliances;
- Using close hooks instead of conventional picture hooks or nails to hang pictures or mirrors;
- Securing tall furniture to the wall so it won't topple over during an earthquake;
- Stabilizing hot water cylinders by using wooden blocks and a metal strap;
- Stringing cord, nylon or curtain wires in front of shelving to lessen the chances of objects from falling off; and
- Using positive-catching latches on cupboard doors and drawers.

By taking these precautions, you can minimize the damage of an earthquake to your home and your loved ones.

For more details on how to earthquake proof your home, please visit:

<http://www.redcross.org/prepare/disaster/earthquake>.
