1 WHEREAS, in 1979, the National Park Service implemented "The 2 1979 Pet Policy" which specified that dogs could be walked off-leash
3 at Fort Funston; and,

4 WHEREAS, in 1992, the National Park Service assured park users
5 and the two U.S. Senators from the State of California that the 1979
6 Pet Policy was the operative policy at Fort Funston and would not be 7 changed; and,

8 WHEREAS, on January 23, 2001, at its monthly meeting, the 9 National Park Service's Citizens Advisory Commission will vote on 10 rescinding the 1979 Pet Policy; now, therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County
12 of San Francisco hereby takes the position that any rescission of 13 the 1979 Pet Policy by the National Park Service is a violation of 14 the National Park Service's obligations to the City and County of San 15 Francisco such that the City and County of San Francisco will begin 16 taking the steps necessary to exercise its reversionary interest in 17 the deed transferring Fort Funston, Rodeo Beach, Chrissy Field and 18 all properties of the 1975 transfer to the National Park Service or 19 to seek specific performance of the deed provisions.
