5
6 WHEREAS, The Judicial Council of California recently completed a survey of 2,100 7 court users and 5,500 court employees that clearly demonstrates bias in our state's judicial 8 system on the basis of sexual orientation; and

9 WHEREAS, This study uncovered that 56% of lesbian and gay respondents 10 experienced or observed anti-gay actions or comments when sexual orientation was an issue, 11 with those comments most frequently made by a lawyer or court employee; and,

12 WHEREAS, This study also documented that in those cases where sexual orientation 13 became an issue, 56% of lesbian and gay court users did not want to state their sexual 14 orientation and 38% felt threatened because of their sexual orientation; and,

15 WHEREAS, This study also found that 29% of court employees believe it is unsafe to 16 be out in the workplace and 59% believe it would be better if lesbians and gay men were not 17 open about their sexual orientation; and,

18 WHEREAS, One in five lesbian and gay court employees reported experiencing 19 discrimination in the workplace based on their sexual orientation; and,

20 WHEREAS, A full copy of the report can be found on the web site of the Judicial 21 Council at www.courtinfo.ca.gov; and,

22 WHEREAS, It is extremely important for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender 23 Californians to have equal access to the judicial system; and,

24 WHEREAS, Governor Gray Davis has yet to appoint open lesbian, gay, bisexual or 25 transgender Californians to the bench in appreciable numbers; now, therefore, be it
