[Declaration of Annual Community Health Center Week]

Resolution declaring the third week of August to be Annual Community Health Center Week.

WHEREAS, San Francisco's community health centers provide a wide range of affordable, linguistically and culturally appropriate health services, including primary and specialty medical care, dental and vision care, pharmacy services, nutritional counseling, and social services; and,

WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco's network of community health centers reduce overall public health expenditures by addressing health issues outside the more costly emergency room setting; and,

WHEREAS, San Francisco's community health centers have been offering health care services for over thirty years and serve over 60,000 low-income, uninsured, and medically under-served people per year; and,

WHEREAS, Community health centers play a crucial role in health care delivery and health education in the City of San Francisco by offering services regardless of insurance status or inability to pay; now, therefore, be it
