7
8 WHEREAS, The Dr. Jorge Bocobo Philippine-American Cultural Center, Archives and 9 Museum Foundation ("Center"), was recently founded in memory of the late Dr. Jorge
10 Bocobo, who as a former President of the University of the Philippines and one of the first 11 Philippine Government pensionados (scholars) sent to an American university where he 12 earned his law degree at Indiana University the first of its kind in the City and County of San 13 Francisco; and,

14 WHEREAS, Dr. Bocobo along with his daughter, Dalisay Bocobo-Balunsat, as its 15 Founder/Director created the mission of the Center, as:

- 16 1. To interweave Filipino culture into the American pattern and to enhance the 17 awareness of American Filipinos of their rich, cultural heritage through Filipino 18 dances, songs, art shows, book exhibits, cultural arts programs, literary and musical 19 presentations, and the talents and creations of the Filipino artists, writers, 20 performers and Filipino American youth; and
- 21 2. To integrate Filipino arts into the American society and the multi-ethnic 22 communities, through the annual Philippine-American Cultural Celebrations on June 23 12th, which celebrates four Philippine holidays, including Philippine Independence
24 Day, the birthday of Philippine national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal, American 25 Independence Day and Filipino-American Friendship Day; and,

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

1           WHEREAS, Despite its large population in San Francisco and the greater Bay Area
2 the Filipino-American community does not have a cultural center such as the African 3 American Center for the Arts, the Japantown Center, the Mexican Museum, the Jewish 4 Museum, among others; and,

5           WHEREAS, The Filipino Education Center, located at 824 Harrison Street, was built
6 and established in 1976, as a Filipino Bilingual School with Ross Quema hired as its first 7 Principal; and,

8           WHEREAS, Since the Filipino Education Center was recently officially closed by the 9 San Francisco Unified School District; now, therefore, be it

10          RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco Board of Supervisors does 11 hereby support the re-opening of the Filipino Education Center, otherwise known as the 12 "home" of the newly established Dr. Jorge Bocobo Philippine-American Cultural Center, 13 Archives and Museum in order to retain the Filipino Immersion Program which will provide for 14 after-school hours classes so that students are given the opportunity to learn all aspects of 15 Filipino culture and arts.
