[Contingent Fee Agreement in Qui Tam Case re Substandard Waterworks Parts]

Resolution approving Contingency Fee Agreement in California ex rel. Nora Armenta v. James Jones Co., et al. (Los Angeles Superior Court No. BC 173487).

WHEREAS, Nora Armenta has filed the above-referenced whistleblower suit under the California False Claims statute, alleging that her former employer James Jones Co., and related business entities, defrauded numerous municipal waterworks by selling them parts made of substandard metals; and

WHEREAS, The San Francisco Water Department is one of the municipal water works that was allegedly defrauded by James Jones Co.; and

WHEREAS, Under the California False Claim Act, Nora Armenta and her attorneys, Phillips & Cohen LLP ("P&C") and Irell & Manella LLP ("I&M"), are entitled to pursue their false claims case on behalf of the City and County of San Francisco and the other municipalities who purchased substandard parts from James Jones Co., and if successful are entitled to obtained a share of the recovery paid to such municipalities, as determined by the court; and

WHEREAS, P&C and I&M have been retained, on a contingency fee basis, to represent a number of the other municipalities that are involved in the case, including the East Bay Municipal Utilities District, and the cities of Pomona, Burbank, Santa Monica, and South Gate; and

WHEREAS, Bringing the fraud case to trial in the Los Angeles County Superior Court will require the expenditure of considerable time and money, and San Francisco will benefit from the efficiency of having the assistance of outside counsel who are representing other parties in the litigation and who have offices in Los Angeles; and,

WHEREAS, P&C and I&M have already devoted substantial resources to investigating the fraud allegedly committed by James Jones Co. and its co-defendants, and are preparing to bring the case to trial within the next several months; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interests of the City and County of San Francisco to retain P&C and I&M, on a contingency basis, in order to help prepare San Francisco's case for trial and to establish in advance of trial the appropriate compensation in the event that San Francisco prevails; and

WHEREAS, The City Attorney has approved the retainer of each of the above-mentioned firms as special counsel to co-counsel the litigation with the City Attorney's Office on a contingent fee basis, whereby the law firms will advance certain expenses and costs associated with the litigation, with the sole contingency upon which the above-mentioned law firms will receive compensation for their services and reimbursement of expenses being recovery and collection of moneys in the litigation by way of settlement or judgment; and

WHEREAS, The contingent percentage set forth in the retainer agreement is the same as the typical contingent fee agreed to by other municipalities that are actively involved in the litigation; and

WHEREAS, Approval by the Board of Supervisors of the contingent fee agreement is desirable; now, therefore, be it
