[Use of the City Flag in "The Flags of California" Publication]

Resolution granting permission to Historian Stan Mottaz to use the Flag of the City and County of San Francisco in his forthcoming book, entitled "The Flags of California."

WHEREAS, Mr. Stan Mottaz, a historian, requests permission to use an image of the Flag of the City and County of San Francisco in his book, entitled "The Flags of California," which will contain illustrations and historical information regarding the various flags of the State of California, including historical, state, tribal, military, county, and city flags; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Mottaz has indicated that such book will likely be published and sold by a commercial publisher; and,

WHEREAS, Section 1.6 of the San Francisco Administrative Code requires Board of Supervisors' approval for commercial use of the City Seal; and

WHEREAS, The City Flag contains the essential elements of the City Seal, including an image of a phoenix issuing from flames, below which appears a motto consisting of the words "Oro en Paz - Fierro en Guerra" (gold in peace; iron in warfare); and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors hereby finds that inclusion of the City Flag in such an educational and historical publication regarding the Flags of California is in the public interest; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, The Board of Supervisors hereby grants Mr. Stan Mottaz permission to reproduce an image of the Flag of the City and County of San Francisco in his forthcoming book, entitled "The Flags of California."
