8 WHEREAS, The First Offender Prostitution Program (FOPP) was established in 1995 9 as a diversion program in order to "shift the approach to prostitution- related offenses"; and,

10 WHEREAS, FOPP was established as a collaborative effort between the San 11 Francisco District Attorney's Office, the S.F. Police Department, the S.F. Health Department, 12 local merchants, the mental health community and Standing Against Global Exploitation 13 (SAGE); and

14 WHEREAS, Scarce details are available on the guidelines that direct offenders to the 15 program, statistics on those directed to the program and information on the program 16 requirements itself; and

17 WHEREAS, There is very little public information on the fiscal workings of the program, 18 including accounting for the funds generated by offenders fees; and

19 WHEREAS, There is no data to ascertain whether the program is meeting performance 20 standards, or what exactly those performance standards are; now, therefore, be it

21 Moved, That the Budget Analyst is hereby directed to conduct a management audit of 22 this program.
