All gifts, devises and bequests of objects of art or other articles heretofore made to the aforesaid museums which entail no expense beyond the ordinary care and maintenance thereof for exhibition purposes are hereby accepted for the purposes for which they have been given.

(a) The collections of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco contain certain objects which are no longer appropriate to the collections. Many such objects are of scientific, social, cultural or historic value, but of little monetary value and therefore not appropriate for sale or exchange. The Board of Trustees nonetheless has a duty of care towards these objects and must expend funds for the storage and conservation of the items. It is in the interest of the City and County of San Francisco that these objects, under appropriate circumstances, be transferred to other public and nonprofit institutions for preservation, study and display, thereby relieving the City of the responsibility and expense of storing and preserving these objects.

(b) The Board of Trustees may transfer title to a work of art or other article in The Fine Arts Museums' collections to another public or nonprofit institution when the transfer is in the public interest. A transfer to another institution is deemed to be in the public interest where the Board of Trustees makes the following findings:

(1) The object is no longer appropriate to The Fine Arts Museums' collections; and

(2) The scientific, social, cultural and/or historical value of the object outweighs its monetary value; and

(3) The object is more likely to be preserved, studied and available to the public if it is transferred to the recipient institution than if it remains with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco or is sold.

(c) Where it is found to be in the public interest to transfer any object which is of historical or other interest to San Francisco, the object will first be offered to a San Francisco public or nonprofit institution.

(d) No work of art or other article in The Fine Arts Museums' collections may be transferred to another institution unless the transfer is approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees. The Trustees may execute all deeds of conveyance necessary and proper to effect such transfer.
