Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. The San Francisco Campaign and Governmental Code is hereby amended by amending Sections 1.100, 1.104, 1.108, 1.112, 1.114, 1.116, 1.122, 1.126, 1.128, 1.130, 1.135, 1.150, 1.161 and 1.170 to read as follows:

SEC. 1.100. PURPOSE AND INTENT.

(a) Huge sums of moneys often are necessary to finance American election campaigns. Inherent to the high cost of election campaigning is the problem of improper influence, real or potential, exercised by campaign contributors over elected officials. In addition, this fundraising distracts public officials seeking reelection from focusing upon important public matters, encourages contributions which may have a corrupting influence, and gives incumbents an unfair fundraising advantage over potential challengers. These developments undermine the integrity of the governmental process, the competitiveness of campaigns and public confidence in local officials.

(b) It is the purpose and intent of the People of the City and County of San Francisco in enacting this Chapter to:

(1) Place realistic and enforceable limits on the amount individuals may contribute to political campaigns in municipal elections and to provide full and fair enforcement of all the provisions in this Chapter;

(2) Ensure that all individuals and interest groups in our city have a fair opportunity to participate in elective and governmental processes;
(3) Create an incentive to limit overall expenditures in campaigns, thereby reducing the pressure on candidates to raise large campaign war chests for defensive purposes beyond the amount necessary to communicate reasonably with voters;

(4) Reduce the advantage of incumbents and thus encourage competition for elective office;

(5) Allow candidates and officeholders to spend a smaller proportion of their time on fundraising and a greater proportion of their time dealing with issues of importance to their constituents' community;

(6) Ensure that serious candidates are able to raise enough money to communicate their views and positions adequately to the public, thereby promoting public discussion of the important issues involved in political campaigns;

(7) Limit contributions to candidates and committees, including committees that make independent expenditures, to eliminate or reduce the appearance or reality that large contributors may exert undue influence over elected officials;

(8) Assist voters in making informed electoral decisions and ensure compliance with campaign contribution limits through the required filing of campaign statements detailing the sources of campaign contributions and how those contributions have been expended;

(9) Make it easier for the public, the media and election officials to efficiently review and compare campaign statements by requiring committees that meet certain financial thresholds to file copies of their campaign statements on computer diskettes or other designated electronic media; and

(10) Help restore public trust in governmental and electoral institutions; and

(11) Help ensure the integrity of the election process by prohibiting campaign advertisements that contain knowing false endorsements of current and former public officials, candidates, political clubs, and organizations. Such false endorsements undermine the integrity of the electoral process by misleading and confusing voters about the actual support for or opposition to candidates or ballot measures and it is too burdensome for individual voters, inundated with campaign messages, to verify the accuracy of such claims and for persons whose positions are misrepresented to correct the misrepresentations close in time to the election.

(c) This Chapter is enacted in accordance with the terms of Sections 5 and 7 of Article XI of the Constitution of the State of California and Section 1.101 of the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 1.115. COORDINATION OF EXPENDITURES

(a) General. An expenditure is not considered independent and shall be treated as a contribution from the person making the expenditure to the candidate on whose behalf, or for whose benefit the expenditure is made, if the expenditure funds a communication that expressly advocates the nomination, election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate and is made under the following circumstance:

(1) the expenditure is made at the request, suggestion, or direction of, or in cooperation, consultation, concert or coordination with, the candidate on whose behalf, or for whose benefit, the expenditure is made; or
(2) the communication funded by the expenditure is created, produced or disseminated:

(A) after the candidate has made or participated in making any decision regarding the content, timing, location, mode, intended audience, volume of distribution, or frequency of placement of the communication; or

(B) after discussion between the creator, producer or distributor of a communication, or the person paying for that communication, and the candidate or committee regarding the content, timing, location, mode, intended audience, volume of distribution or frequency of placement of that communication, the result of which is agreement on any of these topics.

(b) Rebuttable presumption of coordination. In addition to subsection (a) of this section, there shall be a presumption that an expenditure funding a communication that expressly advocates the nomination, election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate is not independent of the candidate on whose behalf or for whose benefit the expenditure is made, when:

(2) it is made by or through any agent of the candidate in the course of the agent's involvement in the current campaign;

(3) the spender retains the services of a person, including a campaign consultant, who provides, or has provided, the candidate with professional services related to campaign or fundraising strategy for that same election;

(4) the communication replicates, reproduces, republishes or disseminates, in whole or in substantial part, a communication designed, produced, paid for or distributed by the candidate; or

(5) in the same election that the expenditure is made, the spender or spender's agent is serving or served in an executive or policymaking role for the candidate's campaign or participated in strategy or policy making discussions with the candidate's campaign relating to the candidate's pursuit of election to office and the candidate is pursuing the same office as a candidate whose nomination or election the expenditure is intended to influence.

(c) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an expenditure shall not be considered a contribution to a candidate merely because:

(1) the spender interviews a candidate on issues affecting the spender;

(2) the spender has obtained a photograph, biography, position paper, press release, or similar material from the candidate;

(3) the spender has previously made a contribution to the candidate;

(4) the spender makes an expenditure in response to a general, non-specific request for support by a candidate, provided that there is no discussion with the candidate prior to the expenditure relating to details of the expenditures:

(5) the spender has invited the candidate or committee to make an appearance before the spender's members, employees, shareholders, or the families thereof, provided that there is no discussion with the candidate prior to the expenditure relating to details of the expenditure;

(6) the spender informs a candidate that the spender has made an expenditure provided that there is no other exchange of information not otherwise available to the public, relating to the details of the expenditure; or

(7) the expenditure is made at the request or suggestion of the candidate for the benefit of another candidate or committee.

(d) Definition. For purposes of this section, the terms "candidate" includes an agent of the candidate when the agent is acting within the course and scope of the agency.
SEC. 1.118. PAYMENT OF ACCRUED EXPENSES

(a) A candidate who accepts goods or services on credit shall pay for such accrued expenses in full no later than 180 calendar days after receipt of a bill or invoice and in no event later than 180 calendar days after the last calendar day of the month in which the goods were delivered or the services were rendered, unless it is clear from the circumstances that the failure to pay is reasonably based on a good faith dispute. For purposes of this subsection, a good faith dispute shall be presumed if the candidate produces the following:

(1) evidence that the candidate protested the payment of a bill no later than 30 calendar days after the last calendar day of the month in which the goods were delivered or the services were rendered; and

(2) evidence that the protest was based on the time of delivery, quality or quantity of goods delivered or services rendered or the price of the goods delivered or the services provided.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) do not apply to debt owed to a financial institution for an outstanding credit card balance.

(c) Each and every calendar day any accrued expense remains partially or wholly unpaid after the time periods set forth in subsection (a) constitutes a separate violation.

A false endorsement is a statement, signature, photograph, or image representing that a person expressly endorses or conveys support for or opposition to a candidate or measure when in fact the person does not expressly endorse or convey support for or opposition to the candidate or measure as stated or implied in the campaign communication.
(b) Definitions. Whenever in this section the following words or phrases are used, they shall mean:

SEC. 1.200.- PROHIBITION ON MULTIPLE CAMPAIGN ACCOUNTS.

An officer of the City and County of San Francisco, or any person or committee on behalf of an officer of the City and County of San Francisco, is hereby prohibited from establishing any account, other than a campaign fund, for the solicitation and expenditure of funds. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an officer from spending personal funds on official or related business activities:

(a) An account established by an officer or on behalf of an officer of the City and County of San Francisco is defined as any account used to pay expenses incurred directly in connection with carrying out the usual and necessary duties of holding office, including but not limited to, travel between an officer's residence and public office, meetings with constituents which are not campaign related meetings, salary payments to staff for other than campaign activities, office promotional materials, advertising, mailings, postage, and paid radio or television airtime.

(b) Any and all monies or services accepted or received by an officer or on behalf of an officer, except monies or services accepted or received from or as a result of the officer's personal or business activities, unrelated to his or her office, shall be deposited, credited or otherwise reported to a campaign fund established by the officer and shall be subject to the provisions contained in Section 1.114 of the Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code.

(e) This Section shall not be applied retroactively. Funds held in officeholder accounts, or accounts on behalf of any officer, existing on November 2, 1993, may be expended on official or business related activities notwithstanding this Section. No further deposits, transfer, credits or other additions to the balance of the account shall be made. Upon depletion of all available funds in the doer's account, the account shall be closed.

SEC. 1.400—PURPOSE.
Campaign literature that falsely represents the endorsement of current and former public officials, candidates, political clubs, and organizations has been distributed in recent local elections.
These false representations undermine the integrity of the electoral process by misleading and confusing voters about the actual support for or opposition to candidates or ballot measures. It is too burdensome for individual voters, inundated with campaign messages, to verify the accuracy of such claims and for persons whose positions are misrepresented to correct the misrepresentations.
Prohibiting knowingly false representations in campaign literature during the limited period when effectively responding to them is most difficult will serve the City's paramount interest in ensuring the integrity of the electoral process.

SEC. 1.405—DEFINITIONS.

SEC. 1.410. DISTRIBUTION OF CAMPAIGN LITERATURE CONTAINING FALSE ENDORSEMENT PROHIBITED.

No person may sponsor any campaign literature that is distributed within 90 days prior to an election and that contains a false endorsement, where the person acts with knowledge of the falsity of the endorsement or with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the endorsement. A false endorsement is a statement, signature, photograph, or image representing that a person endorses support of or opposition to a candidate or measure when in fact the person does not endorse support of or opposition to the candidate or measure as stated or implied in the campaign literature.

SEC. 1.415. RESTRAINING ORDER OR INJUNCTION.

The civil enforcement authority, or any voter, may bring a civil action for injunctive relief against the publication, printing, circulation, or posting of campaign literature that violates Section 1.410. No voter may commence an action under this Section without first providing written notice to the civil enforcement authority of intent to commence an action. A Court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to any voter who obtains injunctive relief under this Section. If the Court finds that an action brought by a voter under this section is frivolous, the Court may award the defendant reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

SEC. 1.420.—PENALTIES.

Any person who violates Section 1.410 shall be liable in a civil action brought by the civil enforcement authority for an amount up to $5,000.

SEC. 1.425.—SEVERABILITY.

The invalidity of any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, or portion of this Chapter, or the invalidity of the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Chapter or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances.
