12 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

13 Section 1. The San Francisco Police Code Article 1 is hereby amended by adding
14 Sections 96 to 96.3, to read as follows:

15

16 Article 1

17 Sec. 96 Title.

18 Sec. 96.1. Findings and Purpose.

19 Sec. 96.2. Definitions.

20 Sec. 96.3. Aggravated Penalties for Foreclosed Properties.

21 Sec. 96.4. Severability.

22 Sec. 96.5. No Conflict with State or Federal Law.

23 Sec. 96.6. Undertaking for the General Welfare.

24

25

1 SEC. 96. TITLE.

2 This Section shall be known as the Foreclosure Responsibility and Accountability Ordinance.

4 SEC. 96.1 . FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

5 1. San Francisco is still seeing a significant number of foreclosures. According to the San 6 Francisco Assessor/Recorder's fiscal year 2010-2011 Annual Report, there were 2,277 notices of 7 default recorded in residential, commercial and industrial properties. This statistic represents an 8 average of 184 recorded notices of default per month, up 171% from five years ago.

9 2. In addition, there were 927 actual foreclosures in the 2010-2011 fiscal year or an
10 average of 83 per month. This figure represents a 3% increase from the previous fiscal year, and an 11 1128% increase from five years ago when foreclosures averaged 7 per month.

12 3. The majority of foreclosures in San Francisco are non-judicial foreclosures. A non-
13 judicial foreclosure allows a lender to sell a property to pay off an existing debt, assuming the lender is 14 authorized to foreclose and that all the requisite procedures are followed. Often, by the time the 15 foreclosure process has concluded, the foreclosed property is in a state of disrepair, often suffering
16 from deferred maintenance and neglect and needing significant repairs.

17 4. Once a foreclosure has concluded, properties can remain in a state of disrepair for 18 months, even years. Often, a foreclosing owner, despite having the resources and ability to abate the 19 conditions, chooses to leave the property in its current state subjecting tenants and the surrounding 20 community and neighbors to the effects of this neglect: further deteriorating conditions such as mold,
21 lack of heat and hot water, peeling paint, overgrown vegetation, vulnerability to squatters, blight, and
22 other nuisance.

23 5. The City recognizes the importance in a dense, urban environment of the need to ensure 24 that properties are maintained in a healthy and safe condition, free of nuisances and blight and
25 therefore it is the policy of the City that all Departments consider enforcement of this Ordinance a high

1 priority. By holding owners of foreclosed properties responsible for maintaining their properties and
2 increasing the potential consequences errant owners face for permitting nuisances to continue, the City
3 can more effectively ensure that its neighborhoods are healthy and safe for those who choose to live,
4 work or visit.

5
6 SEC. 96.2. DEFINITIONS.

7 For the purposes of this Article, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

8 (a) "Foreclosed Property/ies" means a property where a Trustee Deed is issued evidencing the
9 sale, recovery or transfer to a lender or a third party pursuant to any judicial or non-judicial process
10 initiated as recourse for a borrower's default or alleged default on a loan secured by the property.

11 (b) "Public Nuisance" includes any condition that is defined as a public nuisance under 12 California state law including California Civil Code sections 3479 and 3480. "Public Nuisance" also 13 includes any condition declared by the San Francisco Municipal Code to be a public nuisance.

16 or entities.

19 (a) It shall be unlawful to maintain a foreclosed property in a manner that constitutes a
20 public nuisance.

21 (b) Maintaining a foreclosed property in a manner that constitutes a public nuisance shall 22 be considered an aggravating factor in fashioning civil penalties and/or injunctive relief pursuant to
23 state or local law, including California Civil Code sections 3479-3480, California Code of Civil 24 Procedure section 731, Health and Safety Code sections 11570 et seq. and 17910 et seq., and the San 25 Francisco Municipal Code.

1 (c) Persons who own ten or more foreclosed properties shall be liable for an increased
2 penalty of up to three times (treble) the amount of any civil penalty assessed by a court of competent
3 jurisdiction for maintaining a foreclosed property in a manner that constitutes a public nuisance. In

23 shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the ordinance. The Board of Supervisors
24 hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each and every section, subsection,

1 sentence, clause, or phrase not declared invalid or unconstitutional without regard to whether any
2 portion of this ordinance would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.

4 SEC. 96.5. NO CONFLICT WITH STATE OR FEDERAL LAW.

5 (a) Nothing in this ordinance shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any requirement,
6 power, or duty in conflict with any federal or state law.

7

9 (a) In adopting and implementing this ordinance, the City and County of San Francisco is 10 assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing in 11 its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any 12 person who claims that such breach proximately caused injury.

13
14 Section 2. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days from the 15 date of passage.
