ORDINANCE NO. 83-99

[FALSE ENDORSEMENTS ON CAMPAIGN LITERATURE]

AMENDING CHAPTER 16 OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE CODE BY ADDING A NEW ARTICLE XIID TO PROHIBIT FALSE ENDORSEMENTS ON CAMPAIGN LITERATURE

Note: This entire section is new.

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. Chapter 16 of the San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Article XIID, Sections 16.550 to 16.556 to read as follows:

SEC. 16.550. Purpose. Campaign literature that falsely represents the endorsement of current and former public officials, candidates, political clubs, and organizations has been distributed in recent local elections. These false representations undermine the integrity of the electoral process by misleading and confusing voters about the actual support for, or opposition to, candidates or ballot measures. It is too burdensome for individual voters, inundated with campaign messages, to verify the accuracy of such claims and for persons whose positions are misrepresented to correct the misrepresentations. Prohibiting knowingly false representations in campaign literature during the limited period when effectively responding to them is most difficult will serve the City’s paramount interest in ensuring the integrity of the electoral process.

SEC. 16.551. Definitions. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(A) Campaign literature. The term “campaign literature” includes but is not limited to any flyer, doorhanger, pamphlet, brochure, card, billboard, or advertisement urging support for or opposition to one or more candidates or ballot measures. The term “campaign literature” does not include bumper stickers, pins, stickers, hat bands, badges, ribbons and other similar campaign memorabilia.

(B) Candidate. The term “candidate” has the same meaning as in section 16.503(a) of this Code.

ETHICS COMMISSION
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
Supervisor Brown Ammiano
(C) Civil enforcement authority. The term "civil enforcement authority" shall have the same meaning as in section 16.503(f) of this Code.

(D) Measure. The term "measure" has the same meaning as in section 16.503(g) of this Code.

(E) Person. The term "person" has the same meaning as in section 16.503(j) of this Code.

(F) Sponsor. The term "sponsor" means to pay for, direct, supervise or authorize the production of campaign literature.

(G) Voter. The term "voter" means a voter registered to vote in San Francisco.

SEC. 16.552. Distribution of Campaign Literature Containing False Endorsement Prohibited. No person may sponsor any campaign literature that is distributed within 90 days prior to an election and that contains a false endorsement, where the person acts with knowledge of the falsity of the endorsement or with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the endorsement. A false endorsement is a statement, signature, photograph, or image representing that a person endorses support of or opposition to a candidate or measure when in fact the person does not endorse support of or opposition to the candidate or measure as stated or implied in the campaign literature.

SEC. 16.553. Restraining order or injunction. The civil enforcement authority, or any voter, may bring a civil action for injunctive relief against the publication, printing, circulation, or posting of campaign literature that violates section 16.552. No voter may commence an action under this section without first providing written notice to the civil enforcement authority of intent to commence an action. A Court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to any voter who obtains injunctive relief under this section. If the Court finds that an action brought by a voter under this section is frivolous, the Court may award the defendant reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
SEC. 16.554. Penalties. Any person who violates section 16.552 shall be liable in a civil action brought by the civil enforcement authority for an amount up to $5000.

SEC. 16.555. Severability. The invalidity of any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, or portion of this Article, or the invalidity of the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this article or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances.
