2 COMMENDING THE VERMONT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR PASSING A
3 HISTORIC MEASURE CREATING "CIVIL UNIONS" THAT ENTITLE SAME SEX COUPLES
4 IN VERMONT TO SOME 300 STATE BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES PREVIOUSLY
5 RESERVED FOR LEGALLY MARRIED COUPLES.
6

7 WHEREAS, the Vermont Supreme Court ruled in December that same-sex couples 8 were being unconstitutionally denied the benefits of marriage and tasked the Legislature with 9 deciding whether to allow gay marriages or create some kind of domestic partnership; and,

10 WHEREAS, The Vermont Legislature has come up with an innovative response to 11 address legal inequities faced by same-sex couples by creating a new category for long-term 12 relationships called civil unions; and,

13 WHEREAS, In civil unions, domestic partners would be entitled to previously denied 14 state benefits or privileges in such areas as inheritance, hospital visitation rights, property 15 transfers, medical decisions, insurance and taxes; and,

16 WHEREAS, Same sex couples could also apply for a license from town clerks and 17 have their civil union certified by a justice of the peace, a judge or a member of the clergy; file 18 a joint state income tax return; and jointly register for health care coverage if one partner 19 works for local or state government; and,

20 WHEREAS, This measure was approved by the Vermont House of Representatives on 21 a bipartisan vote of 76-69 and is expected to pass the Senate and be signed by Governor 22 Howard Dean; and,

23 WHEREAS, If it becomes law, the state of Vermont will have gone further than any 24 other state in recognizing same-sex couples, allowing partners to live up to their commitment 25 to support each other and to provide stable environments for their children; therefore, be it,
