[COMMENDATION]

COMMENDING THE AFRICAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY ENTRUSTMENT FOR HONORING LOCAL GRANDMOTHERS.

WHEREAS, The African American Community Entrustment is honoring local Bay Area Grandmothers for their contributions to society; and,

WHEREAS, Some of those contributions over the years have included participation in historic marches and demonstrations during the Civil Rights movement, and raising their families, which include not only their own children, but grandchildren as well, in addition to community service; and,

WHEREAS, This year's 5th Annual Awards ceremony, to be held May 6th, will honor distinguished grandmothers from San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Mateo, and Solano counties; and,

WHEREAS, Based on essays submitted by family members and friends, a panel of civic leaders will select seven grandmothers to receive $500 each to designate to the youth programs of their choice; and,

WHEREAS, The African American Community Entrustment raises and distributes funds in an effort to effectuate positive growth in education, job training, and health-related issues, with a mission to increase the involvement of African Americans in the overall philanthropic life of their communities; now, therefore be it

1 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
2 extends its highest commendation to the African American Community Entrustment for honoring 3 local grandmothers.
