9 WHEREAS, California has lost 19 emergency rooms since 1997 with Los Angeles
10 County losing 20% of its emergency wards and Alameda County losing 35% of its hospitals 11 and emergency beds; and

12 WHEREAS, San Francisco's Mount Zion Hospital, with a tradition over a century of 13 treating minority, indigent and marginalized populations, had to close its emergency ward at 14 the end of 1999 for fiscal reasons; and

15 WHEREAS, Emergency departments of hospitals have become the primary source of 16 routine care for millions of poor, indigent and uninsured citizens; and

17 WHEREAS, The inability to pay and the lack of access to transportation often force the 18 poor to seek medical care at when illness or disease has progressed to point where the 19 patient can no longer properly function, and

20 WHEREAS, Cuts in federal and state medical reimbursements as well as the low 21 amount of reimbursement paid out by private managed care companies have impelled many 22 hospitals to close and downgrade its emergency wards; and

3 morale and increasing the number of preventable deaths; and

4 WHEREAS; The number of deaths of people waiting to be treated in emergency rooms 5 are steadily increasing; and

6 WHEREAS; The increasing closures and downsizing of emergency wards will greatly 7 imperil the safety and health of the citizens of San Francisco during a major disaster; and

8 WHEREAS, Assembly Bill 421, authored by Assemblywoman Dion Aroner would 9 prohibit the State Department of Health Services (DHS) from approving a closure or 10 downgrade of an emergency ward if the County's Local Emergency Medical Services Agency 11 (LEMSA) deem that such a closure or downsizing would be detrimental to the health and 12 safety of the community; and

13 WHEREAS; However, AB241 would exempt hospitals located in rural areas as well as 14 those hospitals in which the DHS finds that the prohibition of closure or downsizing might 15 imperil its financial stability; and

16 WHEREAS; AB241 would also allow hospitals to appeal any decision rendered by 17 DHS; and

18 WHEREAS, It is in the interests of the City and County of San Francisco to maintain 19 and preserve the number of available emergency wards in order to safeguard the health and 20 safety of its citizens ; now, therefore, be it
