7 WHEREAS, the quality of life in the Bay Area is adversely affected by the number of 8 single occupant vehicles using our roadways; and

9 WHEREAS, we are in the potentially hazardous air quality season, which began June 10 1, 2000; and

11 WHEREAS, the Clean Air Program of the City and County of San Francisco works in 12 partnership with RIDES for Bay Area Commuters to organize ridesharing options and 13 preferential parking for vanpools throughout the City; and

14 WHEREAS, over 250 full vanpools are entering the City of San Francisco on a daily 15 basis from around the greater Bay Area; and 16 WHEREAS, a large percentage of these 4000 vanpool participants are employees of 17 the City and County of San Francisco; and 18 WHEREAS, the drivers of these vanpools are providing a service for the City of San 19 Francisco by easing congestion and improving the quality of our air; and

20 WHEREAS; the City of San Francisco would like to show its appreciation for 21 all vanpool participants and specifically the vanpool drivers who have the 22 responsibility of making sure all the vanpool riders get to work safely and on time; now 23 therefore be it

24 RESOLVED; that the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco 25 proclaims the week of June 26-June 30, 2000 to be Vanpool Appreciation Week in the City and County of San Francisco; and

FURTHER RESOLVED; that the City and County of San Francisco expresses special gratitude to the vanpool drivers for the crucial role they play in ensuring the success of these efforts to reduce traffic congestion and improve air quality.
