Resolution expressing profound gratitude to Archbishop Romero for the humanity he invoked in all of us, and declaring March 24, 2001 to be ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ARNULFO ROMERO DAY.

WHEREAS, Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero was assassinated twenty-one years ago on this day, March 24, 1980, as he celebrated the Eucharist in the chapel of a cancer hospital where he lived, and personally ministered to the sick. Monseñor Romero’s life is a testament that people can make a difference; and

WHEREAS, The recent earthquakes in El Salvador have destroyed 90 percent of the major cities, killing thousands, leaving hundreds of thousands homeless or injured; and

WHEREAS, The life of Archbishop Romero has created a profound relationship between El Salvador and the city of San Francisco. When the Archbishop implored Jimmy Carter to stop sending money in the form of armament because it was being used to kill innocent people in his country, our eyes were opened to the use of our tax dollars, which ultimately killed him, fomenting a people’s movement in the U.S. which included Religious, Labor, Business, Education and all other sectors of our society to create a more humane policy towards El Salvador, re-energizing our efforts for democracy in our own country; and

WHEREAS, Over 100 thousand people have died because of said aid if not from war, violence of malnutrition, street violence, inhumane working conditions in factories and maquiladoras and in exile as people cross borders and are abused or die in the mountains and rivers of Southern California; and

WHEREAS, The diaspora created by the violence mobilized a wave of immigrants who have enriched our city by founding organizations like CARECEN, CRECE and others which have created opportunities for employment, access to health services, support for youth and young adults, developed leadership among immigrants, faith and civil society; and

WHEREAS, We were awakened to act in the spirit of sister and brotherhood which the very name of our city is supposed to invoke Archbishop John Quinn, and U.S. residents and organizations such as Fr. Moriarity Center, the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights, the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights the Northern California Coalition for Immigrant Rights created efforts that lead this city to declare itself a City of Refuge in 1985, which continues to protect immigrants to this day. Many other efforts took place here like The Great Boycott of Salvadoran Coffee lead by Neighbor to Neighbor and supported by the ever faithful longshorremiums union was kicked off here in our very port in front of the famous Mills Bros. Coffee clock tower that guards our Bay bridge; and

WHEREAS, Thousands of our citizens have now visited El Salvador and Central America, building bridges of human solidarity through groups like SHARE-New El Salvador Today and Catholic Charities – CAROP office, CISPES, Global Exchange, the Romero Foundation and SICSAL, the International Christian Office of Solidarity with and from Latin America, all in San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, The recent earthquakes in El Salvador have destroyed 90 percent of the major cities, killing thousands, leaving hundreds of thousands homeless or injured; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco is grateful to Archbishop Romero for the humanity he invoked in all of us; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the San Francisco Board of Supervisors declare March 24, 2001 to be ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ARNULFO ROMERO DAY.
