[Commendation.]

Resolution commending lesbian activist, artist, writer and outreach worker Delphine Brody.

WHEREAS, Delphine Brody has played a vital role in helping to organize, energize and build coalitions amongst a vast array of grassroots movements of social change; and

WHEREAS, Her work is driven by a desire to create a community where people from different backgrounds can be themselves, nourish their creativity, and live together without guilt, fear or shame; and,

WHEREAS, She currently works as a community health outreach worker at the St. James Infirmary, a free clinic that provides confidential, non-judgemental medical care and social services to current, former and transitioning sex workers; and,

WHEREAS, She has offered her services at the California Prison Focus HIV in Prison Committee, and TransAction, a direct-action group demanding an end to police brutality against the Bay Area's transgender community; and,

WHEREAS, on March 19, 2001 the Board of Supervisors will honor numerous women who have made a demonstrable impact on the quality of life in San Francisco; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors commends Delphine Brody for her work on behalf of women.
