[Commending the Anti-Defamation League]

Resolution commending the Anti-Defamation League for its recent plan to advocate for same-sex domestic partners' rights.

WHEREAS, The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) is a non-profit national and international organization fighting anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry in the United States and abroad; and,

WHEREAS, The Anti-Defamation League combats international terrorism, probes the roots of hatred, advocates before Congress, comes to the aid of victims of bigotry, and serves as public resource for reducing hatred; and,

WHEREAS, The ADL's Central Pacific Regional Board based in San Francisco developed a new policy to advocate for the equal rights of same-sex domestic partners; and,

WHEREAS, At the Anti-Defamation League's annual meeting in New York in November 2001, all thirty regions of the national organization voted in support of the new policy to advocate for domestic partners' rights; and,

WHEREAS, This Jewish organization correctly recognizes that all forms of discrimination, be it targeted at Jewish people, people of color, or same-sex couples, is aberrant and should be eliminated; and,

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco, which has a diverse population which includes same-sex domestic partners,
