7 WHEREAS, The Department of Public Works (DPW) has actively sought partnerships
8 with many City departments, businesses, and community agencies in an attempt to keep the 9 City and County of San Francisco clean; and

10 WHEREAS, In particular, DPW has successfully partnered with the Recreation and 11 Park Department, the Police Department, the Sheriff's Department, the Department of 12 Parking and Traffic, the Port of San Francisco, the Department of Public Health, the Pre-Trial
13 Diversion Program, the San Francisco League of Urban Gardeners, the Fisherman's Wharf, 14 Chinatown, and North Beach Advisory Committees made up of businesses and residents, 15 and the Oceanview, Merced Heights, and Ingleside (OMI) neighbors to improve the quality of 16 life in San Francisco during 2001; and

17 WHEREAS, These collaborative efforts have resulted in such programs as the 18 Community Clean Teams, the Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown, and North Beach 19 Beautification Projects, Operation Scrub Down, the Green Patrol, and Mission Possible; and,

20 WHEREAS, These programs have connected solidly with thousands of residents, 21 merchants, and visitors alike, while also bringing significant improvements in cleanliness to 22 the City, especially along merchant corridors, Market street, and other areas that are 23 chronically plagued by trash; and,

24 WHEREAS, A new spirit of cooperation is reflected in the commitment by over 50 City 25 departments to date to join in similar efforts in 2002; and,
