WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz has contributed immensely to making San Francisco a more livable and pleasant place to live and has helped alleviate some of the problems besetting San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz has successfully litigated lawsuits regarding the Hotel Conversion Ordinance, condominium conversion limits, City impact fees, and the City's authority to exercise its discretionary review over permits, benefiting not just the City but local governments all over California; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz has been a national leader in the practice of land use, regulatory takings, and eminent domain law while working on behalf of San Francisco, including co-founding of the Community Land Use Project of California to assist local government agencies in preserving an appropriate balance between individual property rights and community interest; and

WHEREAS, During his tenure with the City Attorney's Office, Mr. Schwartz has authored several publications, including the Takings Litigation Handbook, Defending Legal Challenges to Land Use Regulations, The Basics of Takings Law, and the article Overripe Takings Claims Produce Rotten Fruit for Regulatory Agencies; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz has distinguished himself among his peers, excelling in oral arguments and crafting sophisticated and powerful briefs, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz's colleagues in the City Attorney's Office have valued him for his energy, his dry wit, his preternaturally clean office and his enthusiasm; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Schwartz's belief in the power of local government to regulate for the public good has inspired students, his colleagues and this Board, and his zealous advocacy for San Francisco has done much to preserve the authority of local governments not only in San Francisco but throughout California; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco hereby commends Andrew W. Schwartz for his twenty-two years of exemplary service for the City and County; and, be it
