Resolution promoting African-American tourism into San Francisco and encourage tourism as a development tool for targeted neighborhoods

WHEREAS, Tourism has traditionally been the most lucrative industry in San Francisco, generating more than $6 billion in annual receipts and thousands of jobs; and

WHEREAS, the African-American experience has been a relatively underutilized part of the city's tourism promotion, although Tulare County attracts more than 150,000 visitors yearly to Allensworth State Historic Park and Los Angeles' annual African Marketplace draws 250,000 each summer; and,

WHEREAS, the theme of the National Black Business Month for August 2005 is the promotion of hospitality businesses; and,

WHEREAS, San Francisco has hundreds of black heritage attractions including state historic sites, local landmarks and other recognized locations such as:

--the oldest black Baptist church west of the Rocky Mountains and two other 150-year-old churches;

--dozen civil rights crossroads where human rights activists made national history to overcome discrimination -more than a hundred Gold Rush-era locations where black merchants operated businesses in the Financial District;

--site of the world's first jazz club, 550 Pacific Ave., opened as Purcell's by two Pullman car porters in 1901 and rebuilt immediately after the 1906 earthquake;

--performance sites for world-renowned theatre performers in the 19th century such as Bert Williams, George Walker and Sissiretta Jones; and
WHEREAS, San Francisco's citizens have continued the legacy of Sargent Johnson, former regional director of the Federal Arts Project, to provide significant public art such as the Dewey Crumpler mural at 762 Fulton St.; the Ella Hill Hutch Center murals; Three Shades of Blue atop Geary Boulevard, the Martin Luther King Jr. Waterfall in Yerba Buena Gardens and the Howard Thurman sculpture on Pine St; and,

WHEREAS, arts and culture are provided through the African-American Arts and Culture Complex, Bayview Opera House, African-American Center of the Main Library, the 50-year-old San Francisco African-American Historical and Cultural Society and the soon-to-open Museum of the African Diaspora and African Marketplace; and,

WHEREAS, at least forty black-owned restaurants are serving customers with distinction, winning numerous reader polls; and,

WHEREAS, most of the above-cited attractions are not included in readily available tourism guides and promotions; and,

WHEREAS, the 40 restaurants alone hire an estimated 500 persons, enough to be considered one of the city's larger employers and several times more than the estimated hires for the California Institute of Regenerative Medicine; and,

WHEREAS, neighborhoods are improved by amenities such as restaurants, stores and cultural facilities; and,

Whereas, Mayor Newsom has targeted under-served areas with improved city services; and,

Whereas, the San Francisco Public Library's Bayview/Anna E. Walden Branch will present SF Soul: Taste the Excitement, an exhibition featuring the city's culinary entrepreneurs during August; and,

Whereas, the nationally-acclaimed AfroSolo festival will occur during August; now, therefore, be it
