[World Water Day.]

Resolution recognizing March 22, 2006 as World Water Day.

WHEREAS, People's daily lives are built on and shaped by water, from bathing in it to playing in it to working with it; and,

WHEREAS, Local and world economies are built on the strength of water transportation and products that are all partly water, in one way or another; and,

WHEREAS, Each region of the world has a different way of holding water sacred, but each recognizes its value and its central place in human lives; and,

WHEREAS, The theme for World Water Day 2006, "Water and Culture," highlights the cultural traditions, religious veneration and artistic representations of water throughout the world; and,

WHEREAS, The international observance of World Water Day grew out of the 1992 United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro; and,

WHEREAS, World Water Day 2006 is part of the Water for Life Decade, 2005-2015, to boost chances of achieving the United Nations international water-related goals and the United Nations Millennium Declaration; and,

WHEREAS, World Water Day 2006 will have its international celebration on March 22, 2006 in Mexico, in conjunction with the Fourth World Water Forum; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors recognizes March 22, 2006 as World Water Day in the City and County of San Francisco.
