8 WHEREAS, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors has expressed its opposition to 9 the war against and occupation of Iraq on many occasions, including prior to the March 2003 10 invasion; and

11 WHEREAS, the reasons given by the Bush Administration to justify the illegal attack 12 upon and occupation of a country which did not threaten the United States have all been 13 proven to be falsifications; and,

14 WHEREAS, the disastrous war continues unabated and has decimated Iraq's society
15 and people, killing, injuring or displacing a quarter of the Iraqi population of 26 million people, 16 and leaving the infrastructure of the country in ruins; and,

17 WHEREAS, more than 3,800 United States military personnel have been killed, more 18 than 27,000 wounded, and more than 28,000 now suffering from severe injury or illness; and,

19 WHEREAS, the costs of the war, both in its operation and expected costs in 20 healthcare and benefits for returning troops is projected to surpass one trillion dollars, while 21 other pressing domestic concerns are neglected and under-funded, such as healthcare, 22 education, housing, and disaster recovery; and,

23 WHEREAS, President Bush and Congress continue to fund the war in Iraq despite 24 over 60% disapproval by the American public, who want to see the war ended immediately,
