

1 [Calling for FremantleMedia North America to provide its employees with industry standard 2 benefits and to treat its employees with dignity and respect]

3 Resolution calling for Fremantlemedia North America to provide its employees with 4 industry standard benefits and to treat its employees with dignity and respect

5
6 WHEREAS, FremantleMedia North America is the producer of top-rated TV shows
7 such as American Idol, America's Got Talent, Family Feud, The Price Is Right, and others, it 8 is a leader in the entertainment industry and should treat its employees responsibly; and

9 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America produces shows in the so-called "reality"
10 genre, which continues to grow and provide an increasing number of jobs for entertainment 11 industry workers; and

12 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America should provide for its workers the same 13 industry standard benefits that workers on other TV shows receive, such as basic minimums, 14 affordable health care, and retirement benefits; and

15 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America utilizes drivers that are not drug and 16 alcohol tested, nor do they receive proper rest periods, compromising the safety of 17 contestants, other production staff, and the public; and

18 WHEREAS; in September, 2007, all four writers from the Fremantle-produced game 19 show Temptation walked off the job after FremantleMedia refused to recognize their desire to 20 win industry standard benefits covered in a Writers Guild of America contract; and

21 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America refused to negotiate with the Writers Guild
22 of America to improve work conditions for the Temptation writers as well as other writers 23 employed by the company; and

1 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America continued to take its uncompromising 2 position despite significant public pressure exerted through a series of delegations to 3 Fremantle's offices in Los Angeles, and pickets and rallies at the worksite of Temptation; and

4 WHEREAS; in April 2008, eight former employees of FremantleMedia North America, 5 the majority from American Idol, filed more than $250,000 in wage and hour claims with the 6 California Department of Labor Standards Enforcement alleging failure to pay overtime; and

7 WHEREAS; FremantleMedia North America employees reported working as much as 8 15-20 hour days, 7 days a week, without adequate compensation or rest periods; and

9 WHEREAS; the Writers Guild of America and the International Brotherhood of 10 Teamsters have initiated a Fremantle American Idol Truth Tour to spread the word across 11 the country of the injustices of working on Fremantle productions; now therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED; that the San Francisco Board of Supervisors calls on FremantleMedia 13 North America, to be a responsible employer that treats the employees who work so hard to 14 make its shows successful with respect and dignity; and, be it

15 FURTHER RESOLVED, that the San Francisco Board of Supervisors calls on 16 FremantleMedia North America to provide its employees with industry standard benefits and 17 to comply with the State of California's wage and hour laws.
