3 Resolution proclaiming December 18, 2009, International Migrants Day.

4
5 WHEREAS, The United Nations designated December 18th International Migrants 6 Day, to recognize the human rights and fundamental freedoms of migrants; and

7 WHEREAS, This day honors the contributions made by millions of migrants to the 8 economy and the cities where they live, work and send their children to school; and,

9 WHEREAS, With the exception of Native Americans, we are all descendants of 10 migrants and the city of San Francisco depends economically on migrant labor to sustain local 11 service industries that make major contributions to our tax base such as restaurants, hotels, 12 garment manufacturing, domestic work, child care, construction, custodial work and much 13 more; and,

14 WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors recognizes that diversity is one of the greatest 15 of community strengths, and appreciates the contributions made by residents of all 16 backgrounds, acknowledging the tremendous impact they have upon the social, cultural, and 17 economic development of our City; and,

18 WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco is proud to honor the history of various 19 communities that have not only strengthened our City, but added to the greatness of our 20 country; and,

21 WHEREAS, We celebrate with the immigrant community the enduring faith, history and 22 culture of all our people, and are further inspired by the immigrants quest for life, freedom, 23 liberty and pursuit of happiness and justice for all; now, therefore, be it
