[Urging Arizona Governor Jan Brewer to Veto Arizona Senate Bill 1062]

Resolution denouncing Arizona Senate Bill (SB) 1062, a law that permits discrimination against the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender community under the guise of religion, urging Governor Jan Brewer to veto SB1062, expanding the boycott of the State of Arizona and Arizona-based businesses if SB1062 is passed, and endorsing the City Attorney's offer to cooperate in a lawsuit challenging SB1062.

WHEREAS, The Arizona legislature passed SB1062, which allows businesses the right to refuse services to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) individuals under the guise of religious freedom; and

WHEREAS, SB1062 will become law if Arizona Governor Jan Brewer signs the bill or fails to act before February 28, 2014; and

WHEREAS, The broad language in SB1062 provides a "license to discriminate" as it allows any individual, corporation, institution, or business owner the right to refuse service to an individual if the owner believes doing so would violate the practice and observance of his or her religion; and

WHEREAS, Similar laws have been struck down as discriminatory in other states, including New Mexico; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors respects the freedom of religion, but this freedom cannot be used as an excuse for individuals to treat certain residents or visitors, based upon identity or sexual orientation, as inferior and less deserving of services and accommodations than others; and

WHEREAS, SB1062 is dangerous because it allows individuals the unfettered ability to act upon personal homophobia, so long as they claim offense to their religious beliefs; and,
WHEREAS, Enacting SB1062 sends a clear message that Arizona is an intolerant and unwelcoming place for LGBT persons; and

WHEREAS, Civil rights leaders, elected officials, businesses, the tourism industry, faith leaders, and individuals across the country are repudiating SB1062 and urging Governor Brewer to veto SB1062 as it is bad public policy and economically detrimental to the state; and

WHEREAS, Arizona Senators Bob Worsley and Steve Pierce with Arizona Senate Majority Whip Adam Driggs, three Republicans who voted for the bill, sent a letter to Governor Brewer stating they regretted their votes and now urge her to veto the legislation; and

WHEREAS, Phoenix Mayor Greg Stanton warned that SB1062 would revive the impression that Arizona is intolerant, damaging the state's economy; and

WHEREAS, Senators Jeff Flake and John McCain and Representative Kyrsten Sinema representing the State of Arizona in the United States Congress have urged Governor Brewer veto SB1062; and

WHEREAS, The Arizona Cardinals, Arizona's only National Football League (NFL) team, has spoken out against SB1062 stating that it does not support anything that has the potential to divide, exclude and discriminate; and

WHEREAS, The Super Bowl Host Committee for Super Bowl XLIX, has stated that it does not support SB1062 citing that it shares the NFL’s core values which embrace tolerance, diversity, inclusiveness and prohibit discrimination against all people, including LGBT individuals; and

WHEREAS, With the potential for SB1062 to become law, Arizona has once again chosen to isolate itself from the rest of the nation as it did four years ago when it passed SB1070, which turned Arizona's law enforcement officers into immigration enforcement officials, in essence legalizing racial profiling against people of color, and two decades ago when it refused to observe Martin Luther King Jr. Day; now, therefore, be it
