Chair Chan moved that this Ordinance be AMENDED, AN AMENDMENT OF THE WHOLE BEARING SAME TITLE, on Page 3, Lines 2-3, by adding 'and funds in possession of the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement (the "Agency") that the City has escheated ("escheated funds")' after 'donations'; on Page 3, Lines 7-15 to read '(1) 50% of all monies paid to the City as penalties and liquidated damages for violations of any Article in the Labor and Employment Code, except penalties and liquidated damages designated for employees and monies intended to compensate the Agency or the City for its enforcement costs or attorneys' fees, (2) all monies otherwise appropriated including escheated funds, designated in a written agreement with the City, or donated to the City, for the purpose of compensating workers for damages incurred as a result of violations of the Labor and Employment Code, and (3) all monies the City may ultimately be able to collect from employers, where a worker has been paid out of the Fund and the worker has assigned to the City their legal claims for the amount they received from the Fund.'; on Page 3, Line 22, by striking 'the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement' after 'whom'; on Page 4, Lines 6-13, by replacing 'Agency's determination' with 'Agency's final determination'; on Page 5, Lines 3-7, by adding '(4) who has not received full payment of any money due from their employer as a result of the employer's violation of any worker protection law in the Labor and Employment Code, and on whose behalf the City has collected money due from the employer that the City has escheated and appropriated to the Fund, and who after the escheatment has requested from the City for payment of the escheated funds.'; on Page 5, Lines 11-25, to read '(2) The Agency shall make diligent efforts to identify Eligible Workers throughout the year, but shall approve any payments from the Fund to Eligible Workers only between July 1 and August 15, inclusive, each year (the "Payment Period"). During the Payment Period, the Agency shall determine a final list of Eligible Workers in the preceding fiscal year and the amount of payment to each Eligible Worker (the "Payment Amount"). In determining the Payment Amount for each Eligible Worker, the following process shall apply, as well as any additional procedures that the Agency establishes by regulation: (A) If the Fund balance is sufficient to pay all Eligible Workers the full amount of money each Eligible Worker is due, as described in subsection (d)(2)(B), then the Agency shall pay that amount to all Eligible Workers.'; on Page 6, Lines 4-14, to read '(i) The Agency shall first pay in full the amount of escheated funds due to Eligible Workers who qualify as such under subsection (c)(4). (ii) If money remains in the Fund, the Agency shall then pay all money assessed as owed to Eligible Workers in a final determination, final adjudication, or written agreement described in subsections (c)(1) through (c)(3), not including penalties or liquidated damages, where the final determination, final adjudication, or written agreement includes violations of Articles 1 and 2 of Division I of the Labor and Employment Code (Minimum Wage and Personal Services Minimum Contractual Rate). For Eligible Workers covered by this subsection (d)(2)(B)(i), the Agency shall pay all money assessed as owed under the final determination, final adjudication, or written agreement, including but not limited to money assessed as owed for violations of Articles 1 and 2 of Division I. (i) If money remains in the Fund, the Agency shall then pay all paid leave amounts due to Eligible Workers for violations of Articles 11 through 13 of Division I of the Labor and Employment Code (Paid Sick Leave, Domestic Workers' Equal Access to Paid Sick Leave, and Public Health Emergency Leave).'; on Page 6, Lines 22-24, by adding 'where the Eligible Worker's employer entered into a written agreement with the City Attorney that includes a payment plan exceeding five years under which the employer agreed to make payments to the City rather than directly to the workers.' after 'Accountability'; on Page 7, Lines 1-3, by striking '(iv) If money remains in the Fund, the Agency shall then pay all money due to Eligible Workers for violations of Articles 102 and 111 of Division 2 of the Labor and Employment Code (Miscellaneous Prevailing Wages, and Minimum Compensation).'; on Page 8, Lines 6-11, by adding '(f) Administrative Debarment. If an Eligible Worker receives payment from the Fund, either the Agency or the City Attorney may initiate administrative debarment and/or suspension against the Eligible Worker's employer to the extent permitted by Administrative Code Chapter 28. The Board of Supervisors intends for the City to pursue debarment and/or suspension when deemed appropriate against employers who violate the worker protections of the Labor and

Employment Code.'; on Page 8, Lines 19-24, by adding 'The Board of Supervisors recognizes that the escheatment process will take time and resources from the Agency and the Treasurer-Tax Collector. The Board of Supervisors intends for the Agency and the Treasurer-Tax Collector to complete the escheatment of unclaimed funds currently in the Agency's possession within three years after the effective date of this ordinance in Board File No. 240905.' after 'State law.'; and by making other clarifying and conforming amendments.
