PRESS RELEASE**

DISTRICT 10 SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY**

SAN FRANCISCO, CA - Last week, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors unanimously passed a resolution to designate the Saturday after Thanksgiving, Saturday, November 26, 2022, as Small Business Saturday in San Francisco and to encourage San Franciscans to shop local as the city continues to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic.

The City recognizes that small businesses are the economic engine that drives the economy and by supporting small businesses, we are benefitting all of our communities. There are about 94,000 small businesses in San Francisco that provide more than 364,000 jobs. Small businesses enhance the quality of life in our city by providing jobs to local residents, creating a diverse and unique character through our commercial corridors, and helping keep our neighborhoods clean and safe.

The COVID-19 pandemic has severely impacted our local small businesses, but these businesses remain resilient and need all of our help to bounce back.

The District 10 Office, which covers Potrero Hill, Dogpatch, Bayview-Hunters Point, and Visitacion Valley neighborhoods, would like to highlight the vibrant corridors with District 10 and encourage residents to visit our local businesses on Saturday, November 26.

Over the last two years, Third Street in Bayview has seen the most Grand Openings than any other corridor even during a global pandemic. Last Thursday, the very first ice cream shop opened at What the Scoop Ice Cream on 5668 3rd Street. Two weeks ago, Punkin One Stop Beauty Bar opened on 4734 3rd Street.

In Visitacion Valley, Leland Avenue which spans from Bayshore Blvd to Rutland Street with vibrant restaurants like Buffalo Kitchen and Creative Ideas Cafe, a sugar-free chocolate shop at Good Chocolate, and Mission Blue, an anchor cafe next to the Visitacion Valley Greenway. Visitacion Valley is also home to the Pacific Islander Cultural District, and the Polynesian Island Luau on Geneva and Oriente Street, which provides island wear, fabric, crafts, music, and food.

In Potrero Hill, 20th Street from Arkansas to Texas Streets is filled with restaurants, Good Life Grocery, and shops to take care of all beauty needs. Potrero Hill also has 18th Street from Connecticut to Mississippi, where one can taste cuisine from all parts of the world, Christopher's Books to find the latest reads, and one of the oldest saloons, Blooms Saloon.

Finally, Dogpatch, a neighborhood with up-and-coming restaurants, a boba shop, a wine bar, Dogpatch Saloon, and many more, is centrally located along 3rd Street and 22nd Streets. Don't just visit on Saturday, November 26, but shop small and shop local in our neighborhoods throughout the year to support our communities and local businesses.
