2013 Blueprint Survey	Increase support for City College to help families.	City College
2013 Blueprint Survey	What is your plan to protect the City College mission? Many youth in the district rely on city college and many adults and new immigrants as well. Just keeping it open but making it more costly is not a good solution. Current special trustee is a disaster for students. For example- they used to send you a bill and never collect it- a problem, now, without notice or discussion, they changed policy to say that if you do not pay by Dec 2 for January semester, your classes are dropped. This is why enrollment is down- the Special Trustee needs to be monitored by our elected officials.	City College

2013 Blueprint Survey	I was on the board of Mission Neighborhoods Center and I thought that there free lunch for seniors was great/a way to socialize and come together to discuss other issues/concerns to seniors.	Community Building
2013 Blueprint Survey	Develop teen groups that can help those in the community by volunteering, helping seniors, helping children read at the library. Have parks be well lit and clean. Keep pit bulls and other potential dangerous animals away from children at parks and other public places with kids.	Community Building
10/21/13 Lincoln High School	More opportunities for internships/community service	Community Building
Email	Start an "Orange" shirt brigade where people can buy official orange shirts labeling them as city helpers- like neighborhood plant maintainers, sweepers, steam clean monitors, announcement board maintainers, distributing flyers for neighborhood events, creating a newsletter and initially distributing flyers to let people know of newsletter, post announcements of neighborhood association meetings- or distributing flyers for such, zoning meetings, supervisor community meetings.	Community Building
Email	I am in favor of calling the stretch of Sunset from 46th Ave to laPlaya and Sloat to Lincoln "Beachtown". It is easily walkable to distribute flyers, easy to manage as a section of town. Easy to manage as a neighborhood association. Until we truly become neighbors comfortable with face to face encounters...because we know each other. It seems communities have nothing to do with where one lives. One can live somewhere for various reasons but share no values with people surrounding them. Neighbors on the other hand, usually share values and face time.	Community Building

Email	Have two concerts from Stern Grove filmed on Live Cams for viewing at Sunset Rec Center live during concerts. The Rec Centers have restrooms and food trucks could park nearby or the kitchen could be used to make and sell small snacks or beverages. To provide a space to view concert that might be easier than going to Stern Grove- for elders, families, infirmed , young people whose parents are not interested in concert, neighbors who do not know about Stern Grove. Email	Awesome throwback dance parties with decade themed music, 40's, 50's, 60's etc. like high school dances- not raves- or mixed decade dance parties and invite dance teachers to teach before the party- like the jitterbug dancers in Golden Gate Park on Sundays.	Community Building
Email	Have a "Meet at the Plane" event on the grass near Larson Pool to bring attention to the campaign to bring a plane back to that location. Attendees could dress like pilots and airline personnel- family oriented- put up a huge inflatable movie screen and show a PG rated movie. The screen would have its back toward 19th Avenue so drivers would not be distracted. Or make it a more grown up event with food trucks. An early movie for families and a later movie for people in costume. Or separate days- so kids do not see inappropriate costumes.	Community Building

2013 Blueprint Survey	We do not need to do anything to make the Sunset more "kid-friendly." There is a demographic change underway in SF and fooling ourselves into thinking that making things more attractive to kids would change that is a waste of effort. I support the change that is occurring. San Francisco is becoming more mature, more expensive, more sophisticated. So be it.	Gentrification
2013 Blueprint Survey	The Sunset has always been one of the best areas for families. Ironically, as many commercial districts go through "improvements" many of the family oriented venues vanish. Rents go up and daycare facilities close. Ice cream shops become expensive bistros. Inexpensive diners become expensive diners. The Sunset used to have many cheap places to go. Now that is no longer the case. I am not sure you have any control over this however. It is just a sign of the times.	Gentrification

2013 Blueprint Survey	It isn't quite fair that the age limit for all public parks around the city is 12.
