GORDON MAR

 MEDIA ADVISORY ***
Contact: Alan Wong, Legislative Aide to Supervisor Mar
(415) 554-7481 | alan.wong1@sfgov.org

Supervisor Mar to Hold Press Briefing on Crime Victim Data Disclosure Ordinance

What: On Tuesday, February 25, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors is due to vote on the Crime Victim Data Disclosure Ordinance. Supervisor Gordon Mar will host a press briefing ahead of the vote joined by Chinese, faith, and public safety organizations supporting the measure.

The Crime Victim Data Disclosure Ordinance requires the San Francisco Police Department (SFPD) to issue quarterly reports on the motivating factors for hate crimes and aggregated demographic data of crime victims.

The speaking program will include:
- Gordon Mar, District 4 Supervisor
- Chesa Boudin, District Attorney
- Marlene Tran, Visitacion Valley Asian Alliance
- Frank Noto, President, Stop Crime SF
- Rev. Megan Rohrer, Grace Lutheran Church
- David Fujimoto and Catie Arbona, Co-Chairs, Alice B. Toklas LGBT Democratic Club
- Karen Stiller, Jewish Community Relations Council

When:
Tuesday, February 25, 2020 at 12:00pm

Where:
City Hall Room 278, 1 Dr Carlton B Goodlett Pl, San Francisco, CA 94102

Organizations that have submitted letters of support for the legislation include Chinese for Affirmative Action, Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association, Chinese American Citizens Alliance, Chinese American Democratic Club, Visitacion Valley Asian Alliance, Alice B. Toklas LGBT Democratic Club, Jewish Community Relations Council, Duboce Triangle Neighborhood Association, Golden Gate Heights Neighborhood Association, Sunset Heights Association of Responsible People, and Stop Crime SF.

###