Request Granted

From:  Supervisor Peskin
To:  City Attorney’s Office
Request to draft legislation that would create a definition of “Small Business” that is based on number of storefronts, number of employees and actual or anticipated annual gross receipts. Based on a City Controller feasibility analysis, all fees assessed against Small Businesses would be reduced by up to 50 percent of “cost recovery.” The City may establish a payment program for qualifying Small Businesses who petition for relief from fees assessed in advance of opening for business.
