President Breed, on behalf of the entire Board, expressed their collected sorrow and deepest condolences over the sudden and unexpected passing of Mayor Edwin M. Lee earlier that morning at age 65. President Breed further spoke on his life, accomplishments, and many contributions to the City and County of San Francisco. As the son of working class immigrants, he led a life of service and early on developed a profound sense of community and commitment to helping others. During his three decades of public service - as the Director of the Human Rights Commission, the Director of the Department of Public Works, the City Administrator, and finally as the City's first Asian-American Mayor - he always exemplified San Francisco values and believed in the power of opportunity. He leaves behind a profound legacy and will be tremendously missed by all those who had the pleasure of working with and beside him.

President Breed made a motion to adjourn today's Board meeting in honor of the late Mayor Edwin M. Lee, on behalf of the entire Board of Supervisors. The motion carried without objection.
