Each bid shall be submitted on a form to be obtained at the Office of the Port Executive Director, 675 Seaport Boulevard, Redwood City, California; shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond for ten percent (10%) of the amount of the bid made payable to the order of the Port of Redwood City, California; shall be sealed and filed with the Port Executive Director at the Offices of the Port of Redwood City, California, on or before February 15, 2022 at 10:00 a.m., and will not be opened until reading will be conducted by teleconference pursuant to Governor Newsom's Executive Order N-29-20. Teleconference details will be posted on redwoodcityport.com or provided via telephone 650-306-4150 no later than February 14, 2022. C. In accordance with the provisions of California Public Contract Code Section 3300, the Port has determined that the Contractor shall possess a valid contractor license at the time that the contract is awarded. Failure to possess the specified license shall render the bid as non-responsive and shall act as a bar to award of the contract to any bidder not possessing said license at the time of award. D. Under California Laws and Regulations the Port shall inform all prime contractors of public works, to the extent feasible of relevant public work requirements. Therefore, the Port hereby advises all bidders that the successful bidder shall: 1. Employ the appropriate number of apprentices on the job site as set forth in California Labor Code 1777.5; 2. Provide workers' compensation coverage, as set forth in California Labor Code Sections 1860 and 1861; 3. Keep and maintain the records of work performed on the public works project, as set forth in California Labor Code Section 1812; and 4. Keep and maintain the records required under California Labor Code Section 1776 shall be subject to inspection pursuant to California Labor Code Section 1776 and California Administrative Code, Title 8, Group 3, Section 16400 (e); and 5. Be subject to other requirements imposed by law. E. Bidders are hereby notified that, pursuant to the provisions of California Labor Code Sections 1777 and 1778, the Port has obtained from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and a general prevailing rate of overtime work on Saturdays and Sundays, and overtime work in the locality in which the work is to be performed for each craft, classification, or type of work required to execute the contract. A copy of said prevailing rate of the per diem wage is on file in the Office of the Port Executive Director, Port of Redwood City, to which copy agencies are hereby made available for further information. The prevailing rate of per diem wages will be made available to any interested party upon request, and a copy thereof shall be posted at the job site. F. The Port will not recognize any claim for additional compensation because of the payment by the contractor of any wage rate in excess of the prevailing wage rates on file as aforesaid. The possibility of a wage increase is one of the elements to be considered by the contractor in determining contractor's bid and will not, under any circumstances, be considered as the basis of a claim against the Port on the contract. G. Bidders are hereby notified that if the contract will be entered into or financed by or with the assistance of agencies of the State of California, the Port must comply with federal prevailing wage requirements. H. Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may be required to submit a statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability, and experience before award is made to any particular bidder. I. The above mentioned check I bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into the contract if awarded to the successful bidder, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract within ten days after the Notice of Award by the Port and a request to enter into a contract with the Port. J. The Contractor may substitute securities for amounts retained by the Port to ensure performance of the contract in accordance with the provisions of Section 22300 of the Public Contract Code. K. The Port reserves the right to reject any or all bids or waive any informality in a bid. L. No bidder may withdraw Bidders' bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the bid opening. M. You should be aware that all contractors performing work on the Track 787 Crossing Improvements Project, or on the Port of Redwood City, are required to present evidence of Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability Insurance coverages; a certificate of insurance and copies of the information or declaration page(s) for Broad Form Comprehensive General Liability or Commercial General Liability, and Business Automobile Liability Insurance policies as follows:

NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE OF HEARING GENERAL VACATION OF A PUBLIC ACCESS, INGRESS AND EGRESS EASEMENT City Council Meeting Livestream https://bit.ly/dalycityfeb14livestream. Monday February 14, 2022, 7:00 P.M.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN in accordance with Streets and Highways Code General Vacation Procedure [8320 - 8325], that the City of Daly City has established the above named place for hearing all persons who wish to be heard on general vacation of a public access, ingress and egress easement. On June 11, 2021, the Planning Division approved the Administrative Design Review Permit, DC-11-20-014774, to install vehicle control gates with a condition of approval that required the vacation of the Public Access, Ingress and Egress Easement (Resolution No.00-271) prior to issuing building permits for the project. The easement was intended for public access, ingress and egress between Westlake Avenue and Citrus Avenue. There is no longer a need for the easement since the existing parking lot located at 400 County Center, Westlake Avenue from Citrus Avenue and only functions as a private parking lot for the
