FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors makes the following findings: The membership of the Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board has a goal to be representative of the diversity of the City and County of San Francisco.
1. Applicant James Hancock, who is not a resident of San Francisco, is a person with experience that uniquely qualifies them to serve on the Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board.

2. The Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board has attempted to fill the position, for which James Hancock was nominated, with an individual who is City a resident and who has the specific experience, skills, and qualifications, but has been unable to do so at this time. The Rules Committee has certified that James Hancock, is qualified to serve on the Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board.

3. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Supervisors concludes that there is no other possible representatives, who is a resident of San Francisco, and who has the specific experience, skills, or qualifications possessed by this applicant, and who is willing to serve on the Treasure Island Development Authority Citizens Advisory Board at this time; and, be it FURTHER MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors waives the residency requirement for James Hancock, as allowed in cases where no qualified City resident, willing to serve, can be found, pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(2), that requires person(s) appointed to boards, commissions, and advisory bodies established by legislative act of the Board of Supervisors to be resident(s) of the City and County of San Francisco.
