6 WHEREAS, Community-based doulas provide continuous support to a birthing 7 individual during labor and delivery by helping them cope with the physical and mental 8 demands of giving birth and making the birthing experience better; and

9 WHEREAS, A doula is a trained companion who supports another individual through a 10 significant health-related experience, such as childbirth, miscarriage, induced abortion, or 11 stillbirth; and

12 WHEREAS, Doulas provide birth and postpartum support for new families through the 13 life-changing experience of having a baby; and

14 WHEREAS, Drawing on their specialized training and lived experiences to guide 15 birthing persons through labor and deliver, community-based doulas provide emotional 16 support and physical comfort that enhance the childbirth experience for the entire family; and

17 WHEREAS, Community-based doulas have at least one commonality with the birthing 18 person, which improves outcomes for underserved communities; and

19 WHEREAS, Community-based doulas remove barriers by meeting families prenatally 20 and postpartum in the home; and

21 WHEREAS, Community-based doulas address maternal health disparities; and

22 WHEREAS, Doulas across San Francisco help create positive childbirth experience 23 and work towards improved birth and infant health outcomes; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors hereby declares March 29 through April 5, 25 2022, as the first-ever Community-Based Doula Week in San Francisco.
