[Supporting California Assembly Bill No. 1550 (Bonta) - Discriminatory Emergency Calls]

Resolution supporting California Assembly Bill No. 1550, authored by Assembly Member Rob Bonta and co-authored by Assembly Member Buffy Wicks, on discriminatory emergency calls.

WHEREAS, All over the United States including in the San Francisco Bay Area, incidents of people harassing and calling 911 on Black people and people of color doing daily activities continue to happen; and

WHEREAS, With the rise of smartphones, there has been an increase of racial profiling and discriminatory incidents recorded and posted on social media and subsequently broadcasted on the news; and

WHEREAS, In May 2018, an individual later dubbed “Barbecue Becky” called the police on a group of Black men who were having a barbecue at Lake Merritt in Oakland; and

WHEREAS, In June 2018, an individual later dubbed “Permit Patty” called the police on an 8-year-old Black girl for “illegally selling water without a permit” in front of her residence across from Oracle Park in San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, In July 2018, neighbors in the Mission called the police on the Black owner of Gourmonade lemon stand, accusing him of breaking into his own business; and

WHEREAS, In July 2019 in San Francisco, an individual called the police on a Black man for breaking into an apartment building while he was waiting for his disabled friend in the lobby and telling him that he did not look like he belonged there; and

WHEREAS, In July 2019, a youth program called Project Level, which employs 75 disadvantaged youth through Mayor London Breed’s Opportunities For All Initiative, brought their interns to the Forever 21 flagship store on Stockton Street to purchase clothes for a video shoot, was confronted by the store manager and police officers and falsely accused of shoplifting; and

WHEREAS, In May 2020, an individual called the police on a Black man who was dancing and exercising on the street in his neighborhood in Alameda; and

WHEREAS, In May 2020, a woman called the police on a Black man who was bird watching in New York’s Central Park while accusing him of harassing her; and

WHEREAS, In June 2020, a couple called the police on a Filipino man stenciling “Black Lives Matter” in chalk in front of his own residence in Pacific Heights; and

WHEREAS, On May 25, 2020, George Floyd was killed after someone called the police to accuse him of using counterfeit money at a store where he purchased cigarettes; and

WHEREAS, These are only a few examples that have been publicized and there are many more that do not get news coverage or are not recorded; and

WHEREAS, Countless Black Indigenous People of Color have died at the hands of law enforcement or was put in danger because of fraudulent 911 calls; and

WHEREAS, There are currently no consequences by law for people who make fraudulent emergency calls based on racial bias and racism; and

WHEREAS, Black Indigenous People of Color suffer from post-traumatic stress disorder as a result of law enforcement violating their rights to everyday normal activities based on fraudulent 911 calls by an individual’s racial bias and racism; and

WHEREAS, Frivolous emergency calls against People of Color is a form of racial violence; and

WHEREAS, In June 2020, Assembly Member Rob Bonta of Oakland, introduced California State Assembly Bill No. 1550 (AB 1550) to end discriminatory 911 calls motivated by an individual’s race, religion, sex, or any other protected class by designating such reports as a hate crime; and
WHEREAS, AB 1550 will also provide a civil remedy for people harmed by discriminatory 911 calls; and

WHEREAS, AB 1550 will establish civil liability for the person committing the discriminatory 911 call; and

WHEREAS, Under current California law, it is a criminal misdemeanor to make false police reports, however, the current law does not include accountability measures to address discrimination if a person summons law enforcement because they perceive another individual to be a threat due to their race, religion, outward appearance, or inclusion in a protected class; and

WHEREAS, While current hate crime law may apply to a specific crime, it currently does not apply it the crime of making a false emergency report; and

WHEREAS, The intent of AB 1550 is to not discourage individuals who are facing real danger or who seek to report a crime in good faith from calling 911 but instead protect millions of Californians from becoming targets of hate and prevent the weaponization of law enforcement against communities of color; and

WHEREAS, AB 1550 is part of a larger nationwide movement to address racial bias and implement consequences for utilizing emergency resources for racist intentions; and

WHEREAS, When law enforcement respond to non-emergency calls as a result of the caller’s racism and racial bias, it diverts resources away from actual emergencies to the unnecessary policing of people of color; and

WHEREAS, In July 2020, Supervisor Walton introduced similar legislation amending the San Francisco Police Code to make it unlawful for an individual to contact law enforcement solely to discriminate on the basis of a person’s race, ethnicity, religious affiliation, gender, sexual orientation, or gender identity; now, therefore, be it
