Resolution urging California Governor Gavin Newsom to extend COVID-related eviction protections to December 31, 2021, or later.

WHEREAS, On February 25, 2020, Mayor London N. Breed declared a state of emergency in San Francisco based on coronavirus (COVID-19); and

WHEREAS, On March 4, 2020, California Governor Gavin Newsom issued a proclamation of a State of Emergency based on COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, On March 6, 2020, the San Francisco Department of Public Health issued Recommendations to Reduce the Spread of the Coronavirus, which advise that vulnerable populations should limit outings, and non-essential large gatherings should be cancelled or postponed, among other recommendations; and

WHEREAS, On March 11, 2020, the San Francisco Health Officer issued a Declaration of Local Health Emergency, Order No. C19-05; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 2020, Mayor Breed issued a directive banning certain nonpayment evictions arising from COVID-19 and the state of emergency; and

WHEREAS, On March 16, 2020, the Governor issued Executive Order N-28-20 suspending state laws that would pre-empt or otherwise restrict a local government’s power to impose substantive limitations on residential or commercial evictions where the basis for the eviction is nonpayment of rent arising from substantial decrease in household or business income or substantial out of pocket medical expenses, caused by the COVID-19 pandemic of any local, state, or federal response; and

WHEREAS, On June 16, 2020, the Board of Supervisors adopted Ordinance No. 93-20 to protect tenants from being evicted due to an inability to pay rent, if the tenant could not pay due to the financial impacts of COVID-19 and the missed rent payments originally came due between March 16, 2020, and September 30, 2020; and

WHEREAS, On January 28, 2021, the California State Legislature adopted the Tenant, Homeowner, and Small Landlord Relief and Stabilization Act of 2020 ("SB 91"), which enacted additional eviction protections for tenants who were unable to pay their rent due to COVID-19 that originally came due between March 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021; and

WHEREAS, On June 28, 2021, the California State Legislature adopted AB 832, which extended certain eviction protections of SB 91 through September 30, 2021; and

WHEREAS, When AB 832 was adopted, COVID-19 rates nationwide had fallen to about 11,000 new cases per day, one of the lowest numbers since the beginning of the pandemic and a 96% decline from the peak of more than 252,000 cases a day reported in early January 2021, according to data reported in the Los Angeles Times; and

WHEREAS, Since that time, new cases of COVID-19 have increased dramatically, with the rate of Delta-variant infections increasing from 53% of sequenced cases in June to 83% the first three weeks of this month, according to the California Department of Public Health; and

WHEREAS, On June 8, 2021, Supervisor Dean Preston introduced File No. 210601, prohibiting landlords from evicting residential tenants for nonpayment of rent that came due between July 1, 2021, and December 31, 2021, that was not paid due to the COVID-19 pandemic, provided the tenant has paid at least 25 percent of the rent owed; and

WHEREAS, In addition to extending eviction protections, AB 832 extended preemption of local city and county COVID-related nonpayment eviction ordinances through March 31, 2022, prohibiting cities like San Francisco from creating COVID-related nonpayment eviction protections for their residents; and WHEREAS, COVID-19 incidence and mortality increased steadily in other states after eviction moratoriums expired, and were associated with doubling of COVID-19 incidence and a five-fold increase in COVID-19 mortality 16 weeks after moratoriums lapsed, according to a July 2021 study published in the American Journal of Epidemiology; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, in light of a resurgence in COVID vases statewide, because state law has taken authority away from localities to extend eviction protections, and for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary health risk and mortality, urges Governor Newsom to extend current protections against COVID-related nonpayment evictions to December 31, 2021, or later; and, be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the Board to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Governor Gavin Newsom.

Resolution urging California Governor Gavin Newsom to extend COVID-related eviction protections to December 31, 2021, or later.

September 07, 2021 Board of Supervisors - ADOPTED
Ayes: 11 - Chan, Haney, Mandelman, Mar, Melgar, Peskin, Preston, Ronen, Safai, Stefani and Walton

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution was ADOPTED on 9/7/2021 by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.

Angela Calvillo
Clerk of the Board

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution, not being signed by the Mayor within the time limit as set forth in Section 3.103 of the Charter, or time waived pursuant to Board Rule 2.14.2, became effective without her approval in accordance with the provision of said Section 3.103 of the Charter or Board Rule 2.14.2.
