Resolution urging the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors to support California State Assembly Bill 1506, authored by Assembly Member Richard Bloom, repealing the Costa-Hawkins Act.

WHEREAS, Rent control has provided seniors, the disabled, and low income tenants with stabilized housing and maintained the integrity of San Francisco's neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, Evictions due to rent de-control and the sale of buildings subject to rent control have led to thousands of tenants being displaced under Ellis Act and Costa Hawkins evictions, and skyrocketing rents are destabilizing San Francisco's communities; and

WHEREAS, Adopted in 1995, the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act exempted housing built after 1995 from local rent control requirements, exempted all single-family homes from local rent control requirements, and required all local rent control laws to contain vacancy decontrol provisions, among other provisions; and

WHEREAS, Under the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act, landlords are permitted to raise rents in cities where rent control is in effect once these units are vacated; and

WHEREAS, According to data from the Rent Stabilization Board, in 1979 the year when San Francisco's Rent Stabilization Ordinance was passed, the median gross rent for a 2-bedroom apartment was $435 ($1,007 in 2017 dollars); and

WHEREAS, In 2017, the average rent for a 2-bedroom apartment is $4,555; and

WHEREAS, While the cumulative rate of inflation from 1979 - 2017 was 131.5%, new tenants experienced an increase of 352% for 2 bedroom units, an increase of nearly 3 times as much as the rate of inflation; and
WHEREAS, In Palmer v. City of Los Angeles (2009), the Second District California Court of Appeal held that the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act prohibits local governments from mandating rent restrictions on inclusionary units in new rental housing developments, as the act gives landowners the right to set the initial rent level at the start of a tenancy; and

WHEREAS, California State Assembly Bill 1506 (AB 1506) would repeal the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act; and

WHEREAS, By repealing Costa-Hawkins, cities would have more flexibility in governing affordable housing needs in their communities and the City and County of San Francisco would be able to strengthen its Rent Stabilization program if AB 1506 were to pass; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That by the adoption of this Resolution, the City and County of San Francisco hereby includes in its 2017-2018 State Legislative Program support of AB 1506 (Bloom) which would repeal the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the Board to transmit copies to the Assembly of the State of California with a request to take all action necessary to achieve the objectives of this Resolution.
