Resolution commemorating December 17, 2018, on the 75th Anniversary of the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1943, otherwise known as the Magnuson Act.

WHEREAS, The Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 was the United States' first and only national law restricting immigration of an entire group, based on race and ethnicity alone; and

WHEREAS, The Chinese Exclusion Act was renewed in 1892, 1902, and made permanent in 1904 and denied Chinese a pathway to citizenship for over 60 years; and

WHEREAS, The Chinese Exclusion Act reflected the widespread stereotypes and beliefs about the Chinese as inferior, degraded, exotic, dangerous, heathens and competitors for jobs and wages; and

WHEREAS, The Chinese Exclusion Act perpetuated xenophobia, discrimination, and the marginalization of Chinese people; and

WHEREAS, The Chinese Exclusion Act separated thousands of families for more than six decades; and

WHEREAS, Between 1850 and 1913, more than fifteen laws anti-Chinese laws were introduced, limiting their participation in business, education and the labor force; and

WHEREAS, After six decades of separating families and inflicting irreparable damage on the Chinese community, the Magnuson Act, also known as the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1943, was proposed by U.S. Representative (later Senator) Warren G. Magnuson (WA-1) of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The Magnuson Act was signed into law on December 17, 1943, in the United States by President Franklin Roosevelt; and
WHEREAS, The Magnuson Act led to President Lyndon criticizing former anti-Chinese laws, saying “It has been un-American in the highest sense, because it has been untrue to the faith that brought thousands to these shores even before we were a country.”; and

WHEREAS, In 2011 and 2012, the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives respectively, unanimously condemned the Chinese Exclusion Laws and “affirmed Congress’ commitment to preserve the civil rights and constitutional protections for all people”; and

WHEREAS, Since President Trump was elected in 2016, he has issued Executive Orders directed at banning or restricting certain groups from immigrating to the United States, such as the Muslim ban he issued on September 24, 2017; and

WHEREAS, Since Trump’s election and his administration’s increased use of incendiary anti-immigrant rhetoric, white nationalism, hate crimes, and anti-immigrant sentiment have significantly increased across the country; and

WHEREAS, The United States has historically served as a beacon of hope and refuge for immigrants seeking greater economic opportunity and a safer, healthier home for their families; and

WHEREAS, According to a Pew Research 2018 report, the United States has more immigrants than any other country in the world; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco is recognized as a Sanctuary City and prides itself in being an ethnically diverse and inclusive community that welcomes and protects people from all countries; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco recognizes the importance of the 75th Anniversary of the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act in remembering our history and not repeating the mistakes of our past; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors recognizes December 17, 2018, as the 75th Anniversary of the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act.
Resolution commemorating December 17, 2018, on the 75th Anniversary of the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1943, otherwise known as the Magnuson Act.

December 11, 2018 Board of Supervisors - ADOPTED
Ayes: 11 - Brown, Cohen, Fewer, Kim, Mandelman, Peskin, Ronen, Safai, Stefani, Tang and Yee

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution was ADOPTED on 12/11/2018 by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.

Angela Calvillo
Clerk of the Board

Date Approved: 12/21/18