Resolution declaring the intention of the Board of Supervisors to rename Donner Avenue between Arelious Walker Drive and West Harney Way, which is a street located in Alice Griffith Public Housing, to Charlie Way.

WHEREAS, Donner Avenue is the name of the public right-of-way inside of the Alice Griffith Housing Projects; and

WHEREAS, Alice Griffith Housing Projects, formerly known, as Double Rock, is where a young ten-year-old Charlie Walker and his family planted their first California roots after leaving Vicksburg, Mississippi in 1943 escaping Jim Crow and massive lynching; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker like most Black migrants from the deep south, was placed in segregated public housing communities in San Francisco; Charlie's family resided at 211 Double Rock Road Building 32-R; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker at the age of 14 1/2 forged his own birth certificate and entered the US Air Force where he was heavily trained on weaponry and war fighting principles; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker was one of the first Black employees for the San Francisco Chronicle, under the supervision of Mr. Gilroy, Charlie was able to convince Mr. Gilroy that expanding paper route services in the Fillmore areas would be just as lucrative as it was in the white areas because black people also liked to read the paper; Charlie dispelled the myth that Black residents were less likely to pay for their subscriptions; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker led protests in the 1960s to open public construction jobs to Black contracts who were being shunned and deliberately passed over for white contractors. and white-dominated unions; Charlie Walker and his team of organizers were able to garner huge contracts on the BART construction; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker and five other community men armed with weaponry came to City Hall to secure then-Assembly Member, Willie Brown, to exit out of City Hall after the assassination of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk; and

WHEREAS, In the early 1990s, Charlie wrote an opinion column in the New Bayview Newspaper called "Why Has Nothing Worked?" and he provided the following solution to San Francisco Black Community: "There is but one way to come up from under the madness, we must own and operate the businesses in our community;" and

WHEREAS, In the late 1990s, Charlie Walker wrote a book called “America is Still the Place” detailing the racism he faced during Standard Oil spill of the 1970s; the Book spun into a decade long public access television show titled after the book and in 2016, the book was turned into a film under the same name that won several awards; and

WHEREAS, In the late 1990s, Charlie became a school reformer and was instrumental in brokering a black-centered parochial school, Muhammad University, to the children of Bayview Hunter’s Point; Charlie was tired of Black children especially Black boys being suspended and expelled out of San Francisco Public Schools and wanted a K-12 alternative; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker has inspired multiple generations of community leaders including his daughter, Yolanda Jones, who owns and operates Y-CAT Construction; which, hires over 30 individuals from District 10 community and his granddaughter, Geoffrea Morris, Reentry Advocate and co-founder of Parks 94124, which garnered state funding to restore Hunters Point’s Hilltop Park which was completed in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker’s grit is embedded in the fabric of Bayview Hunters Point activism and politics; and
WHEREAS, Charlie remains a beloved warrior and crusader for the many black and minority business owner who have been disenfranchised out of the workforce or business opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker is more than a trucker, business owner, social justice icon, he is the “Mayor of Bayview Hunter’s Point,” and one of the fathers of Black own businesses in San Francisco and in June of 2019, he was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award by the African American Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker loves the City and County of San Francisco and remain an outspoken activist in the Bayview Hunters Point Community even at the age of 86; and

WHEREAS, Charlie Walker is integral figure that is woven into fabric of San Francisco neighborhood politics with his name being synonymous with words Bayview Hunters Point; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors intends to rename Donner Avenue to Charlie Way to enshrine his legacy, and to mark his permanent transformation for the fight for Black and Minority business in City and County of San Francisco, and, be it,

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors directs Public Works to initiate the City’s Street renaming procedures, expeditiously process the required actions related to renaming, coordinate with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors’ Office regarding posted and published notice for the street renaming, report to the Board on its findings so that the Board may officially rename the street.
Resolution

File Number: 210888 Date Passed: October 05, 2021

Resolution declaring the intention of the Board of Supervisors to rename Donner Avenue between Arelious Walker Drive and West Harney Way, which is a street located in Alice Griffith Public Housing, to Charlie Way.

September 27, 2021 Land Use and Transportation Committee - RECOMMENDED

October 05, 2021 Board of Supervisors - ADOPTED
Ayes: 11 - Chan, Haney, Mandelman, Mar, Melgar, Peskin, Preston, Ronen, Safai, Stefani and Walton

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution was ADOPTED on 10/5/2021 by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.

[Signature]
Angela Calvillo
Clerk of the Board

[Signature]
London N. Breed
Mayor

Date Approved: 10/15/21