8
9 WHEREAS, The San Francisco District Attorney will partner with University of San 10 Francisco School of Law's Racial Justice Clinic to (1) reexamine cases involving 11 excessive sentences under Penal Code, Section 1170(d); and (2) evaluate claims of 12 wrongful conviction; and

13 WHEREAS, Under Penal Code, Section 1170(d), the District Attorney is 14 empowered to vacate excessive sentences upon a showing of good cause; and

15 WHEREAS, Section 1170(d) is a powerful tool for reversing some of the harm done 16 by the criminal justice system, but to wield its power effectively will require more staff and 17 resources than the District Attorney's Office currently has available or can provide in the 18 immediate future; and

19 WHEREAS, Similarly, San Francisco's all-volunteer Innocence Commission requires 20 additional support to effectively evaluate of claims of claims of wrongful conviction; and

21 WHEREAS, In order to provide relief to any significant number of eligible 22 incarcerated people, the District Attorney will need additional personnel and resources; and

23 WHEREAS, University of San Francisco School of Law's Racial Justice Clinic
24 received gifts totaling $250,000 intended by the donors to fund the hiring of two staff
25

1 attorneys by the Racial Justice Clinic to support the District Attorney’s reexamination of 2 cases to identify cases involving excessive sentences and wrongful convictions; and

3 WHEREAS, One attorney funded through this gift will work with the District Attorney 4 to identify cases in which an excessive sentence has been imposed, and for which relief is 5 therefore available under Penal Code, Section 1170(d); this attorney will: (1) screen, 6 review, and evaluate cases eligible for relief under PC 1170(d)(1); (2) position qualifying 7 cases for rapid review by the District Attorney’s Post-Conviction Unit; and (3) train and 8 supervise clinic students to screen and review an even greater volume of eligible cases; 9 and

10 WHEREAS, A second attorney funded through this gift will support the work of the 11 Innocence Commission to evaluate cases in which an incarcerated person claims to have 12 been wrongfully convicted; this staff attorney will allow the Racial Justice clinic to do three 13 things: (1) train the students to help the Innocence Commission members in evaluating 14 wrongful conviction claims—including any necessary follow up investigation; (2) ensure that 15 the Commission members can efficiently and fairly evaluate as many claims as possible;
16 and (3) serve as the primary drafter of the Findings of Fact Memorandum as well as any 17 other documents authored by the Commission; now, therefore, be it

18 WHEREAS, No indirect costs are included by the Department to maximize the value 19 of the service; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors approves the in-kind gift estimated at 21 $250,000 and authorizes the Office of the District Attorney to accept the support for the 22 Racial Justice Clinic work from the University of San Francisco.
